'Power of Florence' gearing up for annual day of volunteerism

COURTESY PHOTO

Citizens of all ages are encouraged to participate in the eighth-annual Power of Florence event set for July 21.

The eighth annual Power of Florence, a city-wide day of volunteering and helping others, is scheduled for Saturday, July 21. The Florence City Council officially proclaimed the third Saturday each July as a day dedicated to joining together to make a difference by fundraising, volunteering and attending community service projects.

This day of making a difference starts with a Power Walk led by Mayor Joe Henry and Police Chief Tom Turner. It continues with service projects all over town as well as the "Party in the Parking Lot" at Grocery Outlet. This party will feature entertainment by the CROW kids and Jason Woods' vocal students. The Humane Society will be on hand with a delicious BBQ as will several local nonprofits including the Lion Club who will be offering free health screenings.

Over the past seven years, the Power of Florence has had more than 7,500 volunteers join together to beautify our parks and schools, raise money for local non-profits and collect thousands of pounds of food for Florence Food Share.

The Power of Florence was developed by Kaylee Graham who has inspired so many with her love of volunteerism and giving back to the community she loves so dearly. But as she graduates from Siuslaw High and moves on to college, she passes the torch to Ava Glowacki and Faith Lumadue.

Seventh-graders Ava and Faith share Kaylee's belief that we all have the power to make our community stronger by pitching in and having fun together.

If you or your organization would like to join us for the Power of Florence, email Ava and Faith at powerofflorence@hotmail.com or call for more information at 541-997-9819. Visit the Power of Florence Facebook page for event updates as well as powerofflorence.com.

Call to artists for Connection phone book

Pacific Publishing and Florence Regional Arts Alliance (FRAA) are inviting artists to submit their photography for the cover of the 2019 Edition Central Coast Connection Phone Book.

Imagine having a photograph on the cover of a publication that was delivered to almost 20,000 residents last year.

"We so appreciate local art, and the way it represents where we live, work, share adventures and make memories," Publisher Jon Thompson said. "We are delighted to have a piece of that artwork grace the cover of the phone book."

The winner of this contest will receive $300, as well as have their photo and bio in the phone book. To learn further details and instructions about this contest, visit the FRAA website: www.fraaoregon.org/central-coast-entry-instructions.html.

The deadline for submissions is June 30, 2018.

Photography should represent the area the publication serves, from Yachats to the North, Reedsport to the South, and East to Swisshome.

Pacific Publishing will determine the winner by Monday, July 9, and notice of being chosen as the winner will be made via email during the week of July 9.
