

Spirituali-Tea to discuss 'race unity' Monday

This Monday evening, June 11, at 6:30 p.m., community members will gather at 875 Seventh St. to discuss matters of the Spirit.

The topic will be "Race Unity." Racism is one of the most challenging issues confronting America. Notwithstanding the efforts already expended for its elimination, racism continues in the nation.

Progress toward tolerance, mutual respect and unity has been painfully slow and marked with repeated setbacks.

The recent resurgence of divisive racial attitudes, the increased number of racial incidents, and the deepening despair of minorities and the poor make the need for solutions ever more pressing and urgent.

To ignore the problem is to expose the country to physical, moral and spiritual danger.

The group will also read the prayer requests left in the Prayer Pole in the garden of the Florence Playhouse and those of all who attend.

Tea, coffee and cookies will be offered.

Unitarians to talk about defense of wild places

Guest speaker Jason Gonzales will discuss "Defending Oregon's Wild Places" on Sunday, June 10, from 10 to 11 a.m., at the Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship.

Gonzales' presentation will be about his many years working to protect and defend Oregon's wild places, wildlife and waters, and his work on the Oregon Coast, where he organizes with local community groups who are working to protect their drinking watersheds from the dangerous impacts of industrial clearcutting and aerial spray.

FEU, 87738 Hwy 101 at Heceta Beach Road, is wheelchair accessible and each service concludes with refreshments and a dialogue circle.

Little Log Church to host musical renaissance experience in Yachats

The group Byrdsong Consort will perform 16th- and 18th-century music during the Little Log Church and Museum's special event in Yachats June 16.

The Thistle, the Shamrock and the Rose will be the theme of a special concert to be held on Saturday, June 16 at 3 p.m. at the Little Log Church and Museum in Yachats. The event recalls the renaissance experiences of 16th to 18th century Scotland, Ireland and England, featuring works by O'Carolan, Playford, Gow, Jenkins and others who played on harpsicord, viols, violins, traverso and recorders.

The group's name Byrdsong Consort refers to William Byrd, an English composer of the renaissance. The musicians are Michael Bardossi, Alice Barkan, Julia Heydon, Elinora Sears and Tom Sears, all from Eugene.

This will be the second appearance of Byrdsong Consort at the Little Log Church.

"It's not often we have a harpsicord imported to Yachats," said Little Log Church's Events Coordinator Mary Cook. "This is indeed a special occasion."

The suggested donation is $10 per person. A portion of the proceeds will be given to the Little Log Church and Museum.

The Log Church is located at 328 West Third St. (corner of West Third and Pontiac) in the heart of Yachats.
