Florence Habitat for Humanity is working toward the vision of "A world where everyone has a decent place to live." Habitat for Humanity is known for building simple, decent homes where low-income families can afford the monthly mortgage payment, but Habitat does much more! Habitat for Humanity also advocates for universal design and a holistic approach to Aging in Place through education and outreach, shared practices, strategic partnerships and research.

Florence Habitat for Humanity (FHH) also offers our "Ramps and Rails" program which helps low-income veterans, disabled individuals and elderly homeowners remain in their home by providing simple home modifications. These projects include wheelchair ramps, grab-bars, interior and exterior handrails, replacing light switches with rocker style switches and lever style door knobs. The "Ramps and Rails" program utilizes volunteer labor, donated materials (when available) and a zero-interest payment plan.

Florence Habitat for Humanity is proud to be a sponsor of the "Aging in Place, A Plan for the Future" Forum in partnership with the Florence Area Community Coalition (FACC). By local agencies working together we can all strive for the vision that "All people have the right to age with dignity in their homes and community."
