Grant brings 40,000 feet of new fire hose to Siuslaw Region departments

Last year, Siuslaw Valley Fire and Rescue (SVFR) received a regional FEMA grant to replace all fire hose for SVFR, Mapleton and Swisshome/Deadwood Fire Districts.

The value of the grant was more than $250,000. The hose was delivered to Swisshome/Deadwood last week and will be delivered to Mapleton next. Among the three districts, over 40,000 feet of hose was purchased and will be placed on fire apparatus.

"The typical life of fire hose is 15 years, which should save all three fire districts money for many years," said Chief Director Jim Langborg. "This grant is one of the many efforts SVFR has made to partner with its upriver counter parts in an effort to help improve emergency response to all citizens and visitors of the Siuslaw region."

Siuslaw Public Library re-roofing project scheduled to begin Monday

The Siuslaw Public Library District will be replacing the roof of the main branch building at 1460 Ninth Street beginning Monday, June 25.

The project is necessary due to multiple roof leaks discovered during the winter of 2016-17.

The roof replacement project was recently awarded to Rock Roofing of Eugene, Ore., after a competitive bidding process.

Replacement of the 18,000-square-foot roof is expected to take approximately two months.

During the construction period, patrons will experience some disruption including noise, dust and lack of access to the east end of the parking lot.

Access to entrances and other areas of the parking lots will also be disrupted at times. These areas will be cordoned off to allow safe access for patrons.

Updates about the roof replacement project will be available at both library locations, on the Siuslaw Public Library District's Facebook page, in the Library Tidings newspaper column and online at www.SiuslawLibrary.com.

info. Funding for the new asphalt shingle roof came in part from book and card sales conducted by the Friends of the Siuslaw Public Library, a fundraiser featuring movie posters donated by City Lights Cinemas, individual donations from the library's generous patrons and the estate of Glenn and Marion Groce.

The Siuslaw Public Library appreciates the public's patience during construction.

Dunes City announces open seats for city councilors, mayoral elections

In addition to the mayor position, the Dunes City elections officer announced that there are also three Dunes City Council positions open for election bid by qualified candidates.

"Candidates for office in Dunes City must be residents of Dunes City at the time of their election," said Dunes City Administrator and Elections Officer Jamie Mills.

Council seat positions are for a term of four years, while the mayor, a position currently filled by Bob Forsythe, is elected for a two-year term.

Councilors whose terms expire at the end of this year include Duke Wells, Sheldon Meyer and Susan Snow.

So far, Meyer has submitted an application to run for re-election.

Dunes City election packets are available for pickup at Dunes City Hall between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

Completed applications must be submitted to the elections officer for release of petition signature pages.

The election packets, including verified petition signature pages, must be returned to City Hall by Aug. 23, 2018.
