

Make Your Own Water Park

If you can't make it to a water park, try making your own water playground in your back yard or at a local park. Here are some ideas!

Juggle or toss water balloons.

Create a squirt gun shower. Squirt water out of the gun and over your head and see if you can turn around two times before the water hits the ground.

Make a water blob. Use two thick sheets of plastic sheeting and a roll of duck tape to make a giant sack to fill with water. Roll around and slide on your water blob!

Play baseball and/or basketball with water balloons instead of balls!

Play a water balloon head catch game by taping a plastic mixing bowl to the top of a bike or batting helmet. One person throws the balloon and the other one tries to catch it in the bowl. Lots of splashes guaranteed!

Always remember to collect broken water balloons at the end of your game and put them in the trash.

But you need to be careful so you don't get too much sun! Too much sun can cause a painful burn and even increase your chances of skin cancer.
