Book Review "She Has Her Mother's Laugh" by Carl Zimmer

Heredity has long defined us. Now we are defining it. A historic transformation in our understanding of life is taking place today. Carl Zimmer's masterwork "She Has Her Mother's Laugh: The Power, Perversions and Potential of Heredity," illuminates this transformation like no other book before.

In a narrative that reads like a sweeping novel, Zimmer weaves together tales of scientific advance and pseudoscientific poison, heroes and villains, reflections on being a father to two daughters, analyses of his own genome revealing curious distant ancestors and investigative reporting into cutting-edge discoveries that will shape the lives of all children to come.

Zimmer shows how our concepts of heredity have long been a powerful force affecting all economies, politics and cultures. Heredity determined how crowns and thrones were passed down through the generations.

Genetics revealed in profound detail how diseases and traits like eye color and intelligence were influenced by heredity. But heredity flows through other channels as well — from cultural practices to the environments we built around ourselves and our descendants.

With a surprise on almost every page, from the first use of the Latin word hereditas by the Romans to Darwin's theory and Mendel's Law, to the deeply disturbing rise of eugenics in the 20th century, to revelations regarding the microbiome and epigenetics, all the way to the rapid rise of CRISPR gene-editing technology, "She Has Her Mother's Laugh" is both a defining moment in biology and a work of wit and erudition poised for a transgenerational life in our culture ecosystem.

Oregon Dunes: A Vanishing Landscape?

The library is pleased to have local resident Dina Pavlis discuss the "Oregon Dunes: A Vanishing Landscape?" on Saturday, July 14, at 1 p.m. in the Bromley Room.

The Oregon dunes are important to our coastal communities both economically and ecologically; they delight residents and the approximately 500,000 visitors who travel to see them each year and support a plethora of native plants and wildlife.

And the dunes are disappearing before our eyes.

Learn about this unique landscape and what's being done to save it from Pavlis, a local author, U.S. Forest Service volunteer, Oregon Dunes Restorative Collaborative member and exceptional steward of the dunes.

This program is free and open to the public.

Mark Calendars for Concerts

Two concerts are scheduled for

July. The first concert on Wednesday, July 18, at 1 p.m., features folk-singing duo Jennings & Keller presenting "Judy, Joan and Joni - Three Voices That Defined a Generation," a retrospective of the work of Judy Collins, Joan Baez and Joni Mitchell.

The second concert features local favorites Terra Nova Trio on Wednesday, July 25, at 2 p.m. The trio, consisting of Annalisa Morton, Mike Curtis and Sandy Holder, is an ensemble of players from the Eugene Symphony and the Oregon Bach Festival.

Library Roof Work

Visitors to the library will notice that our roof work has started at the Florence location and the crew is busy removing the old covering.

Please be patient as the construction continues and alert for parking lot disruptions and noise and dust.

If it gets too noisy while you are reading or working in the library, stop by the circulation desk for a free pair of earplugs.

Holiday Closure

In honor of Independence Day, the library will be closed, in Florence and Mapleton, on Wednesday, July 4.

Regular library hours resume the next day, Thursday, July 5.

The library wishes you all a wonderful and safe Fourth of July holiday!
