

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

BRALEY—Michael Glenn Braley, beloved life partner,

Michael Glenn Braley

son, father, brother and friend, passed away suddenly on April 20, 2018 at the age of 61. He will be lovingly remembered and missed by so many.

Mike was born and raised in Florence, Ore., and spent his entire life in or around Florence, spending many years working as a fishing guide on various rivers in Oregon; his passion was fishing and introducing others to the sport he loved so much. He was always happy on the water with a fishing rod in his hand and it was indeed his favorite place to be.

Mike is survived by his mother Margaret Lyday, his life partner Shannon Briggs, daughter Jennifer Braley, sisters Karen Braley and Kathy Lyday and grandsons Gage and Knobie, both of whom were his pride and joys. He is preceded in death by his father Glenn Braley.

A celebration of life will be held on Sunday, July 15. Please contact Jennifer or Shannon for more details.

LANGERVELD—Edward Roy Langerveld, 81, of Florence, Ore., lost his life to cancer April 27, 2018. He was born August 12, 1936 in San Francisco California to Edna and Andree Langerveld.

Ed delivered newspapers and telegrams peddling up and down the streets of San Francisco as a teenager.

Edward Roy Langerveld

He joined the Marine reserves in 1955.

He married Alice in 1956 and they had 3 children and moved to Gresham, Ore. In 1958, he worked various jobs until finding his career job at Tektronix, working 30 years as a mechanical draftsman and later management.

Divorced, he met Zee Anderson and they became a blended family of 8. They retired and left Hillsboro in 1991 and traveled for a year before moving to Florence. He lost Zee after 35 years together in 2008.

He loved planes, trains, automobiles — especially British cars, motorcycles, working in his shop and reading about World War II.

Ed is survived by his children, Linda Langerveld and Dan Armstrong, Ed & Denise Langerveld, Chet & Lavonne Larson, Doug & Jill Larson, Peggy Cort and Dennis DuCharme, Miles & Melissa Anderson and Laurel Anderson. He was grandfather to Ilona, Ashley, Felicia, Trisha, Jake and Ella and great grandfather to Kyra, Ryan, Hailey, Landen and Annabella.

He was preceded in death by his wife Zee Anderson, daughter Lois Langerveld and grandson Tyler Larson.

A celebration of life will be held 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. at the Oregon Coast Military Museum, 2145 Kingwood St. in Florence, on Saturday, July 21. In lieu of flowers you can donate to Florence Food Share or Oregon Coast Military Museum.

Burns' Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home was in charge of all arrangements.

NICKOLAUS—A Celebration of Life for Christopher Paul Nickolaus will be held on Sunday, Aug. 19, at 1 p.m. at Devil's Elbow and the Heceta Lighthouse.

People are asked to gather at the east side of the bridge on the grassy lawn in the overflow parking area.

Bring a dish to share if you would like, okay if not, as well as a chair and your own beverages.

People are also encouraged to bring a story or photo to share, if desired.

My thanks to everyone for their care and support over this past year. Sincerely, Mary Nickolaus.

Fire Marshal urges constant vigilance against wildfires

Oregon State Fire Marshal Jim Walker is encouraging Oregonians to use extreme caution as intense heat and dry thunderstorms are predicted for areas around the state for the next few days.

If your summer plans include camping, Walker reminds you to check for any campfire restrictions in the area you will be visiting, as campfires may be prohibited outside maintained campgrounds with fire pits.

Build your campfire only where authorized and never leave your campfire unattended. When putting out your campfire be sure you drown the coals with water, stir with a shovel and drown again until it is cool to the touch.

Fire season requires residents to be at a heightened awareness for the dangers of wildfire. Be prepared to act to keep you, your family, and pets safe.

Follow these Ready, Set Go! tips:

• Be Ready — Plan escape routes, and make sure all the residents within the home know the plan of action. Be ready to evacuate any pets as well as family members.

• Get Set — Pack your emergency items such as a battery powered radio, spare batteries, emergency contact numbers and ample drinking water. Stay aware of the latest news and information on the fire in your area from local media, your local fire department and public safety.

• Go! — If a fire impacts your community and you are asked to leave, follow your personal wildland fire action plan. Doing so will not only support your safety, but will allow firefighters to best maneuver resources to combat the fire.

"It's everyone's responsibility to help prevent human-caused wildfires," Walker said. "Please be aware of weather conditions and fire restrictions in your area."

Residents are strongly encouraged to contact their local fire protection agencies for additional burning information and regulations.

For more information, visit the websites for OSFM Wildland Urban Interface, Keep Oregon Green or Oregon Department of Forestry.
