

FUUF set to find ‘That Magic Place’ Sunday

On Sunday, July 15, from 10 until 11 a.m., the Rev. Stephen Landale will lead the worship service at the Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship. His topic will be “That Magic Place.” Landale asks, “Do you suffer from ‘topophilia,’ which is the love of a particular place?” He will reflect on sacred places in our lives — in nature, literature, and even those we co-create — using his own experiences. After a dozen years of UU parish ministry in New England and Eugene, Landale is now completing his sixth year as a hospice chaplain in Oregon.

The fellowship is located at 87738 Highway 101 at Heceta Beach Road and is wheelchair accessible.

Each service concludes with refreshments and a dialogue circle to explore the questions that come up during each worship service. For more information, visit www.florenceuuf.org

Spirituali-Tea to explore 4 kinds of love

On Monday, July 16, beginning at 6:30 p.m., all are invited to join a group of people who enjoy finding the common grounds in diverse spiritual thoughts and paths.

The meeting is at 875 Seventh St. in Florence.

The topic is Four Kinds of Love.

The Baha'i Writings say, “There are four kinds of love. The first is the love that flows from God to man; it consists of the inexhaustible graces, the Divine effulgence and heavenly illumination. Through this love the world of being receives life.”

The second is the love that flows from man to God. This is faith, the origin of all philanthropy; this love causes the hearts of men to reflect the rays of the Sun of Reality, the writing say.

The third is the love of God towards the self or identity of God. “This is the transfiguration of His Beauty, the reflection of Himself in the mirror of His Creation. This is the reality of love, the Ancient Love, the Eternal Love. Through one ray of this Love all other love exists.”

The fourth is the love of man for man. The love which exists between the hearts of believers is prompted by the ideal of the unity of spirits.

“This love is attained through the knowledge of God, so that men see the Divine Love reflected in the heart.”

Bring thoughts on the subject for open discussion.

The gathering will end at 8 p.m. with prayers for the requests left in the Prayer Pole in the garden of the Florence Playhouse and those shared by the group.

For more information, contact Suzanne Mann-Heintz at 541-590-0616.

Jesse Meade plays at Three Rivers Casino

Every weekend in July, Three Rivers Casino Resort invites the community to Blue Bills Sports Bar & Tap Room, featuring live shows performed by top local artists.

Be sure to stop in Blue Bills this Saturday, July 14, from 7 to 11 p.m., to hear amazing R&B hits from Oregon native Jesse Meade.

Known for his distinct acoustic guitar sounds, Meade was once named Best Solo Performer in Eugene Weekly's Best of Eugene.

As a reminder, there is no cover charge, but patrons must be 21 or older to attend.

To learn more about Three Rivers Casino Resort and the entertainment line-up at Blue Bills Sports Bar & Tap Room, visit www.threeriverscasino.com/ events.

Three Rivers Casino Resort is owned and operated by the Confederated Tribes of the Coos, Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians. It sits on a 100-acre site along Oregon's southern coast. Initially and squaring them with state regulations.

One regulation includes a requirement for applicants to show the water source that will serve the property, a hotly debated topic last year.

Other requirements include ensuring that all doorways, windows and openings shall be screened, proper security measures be enacted and that noise from the facilities be reduced.

The ordinance also makes a distinction between growing marijuana and actually processing it, with growers being allowed in residential zones, and processors regulated to commercial zones.

A grow operation consists of five or more plants. Citizens can grow up to four plants on their property without running afoul of the regulations.

The ordinance is not retroactive, and those marijuana grow sites already within city limits will not be subject to the new rules. If complaints arise for those businesses, city officials must rely on existing nuisance laws or referrals to the OLCC.

“I think this is good because there is a chance that Dunes City could go against what we proposed on the ballot, so this is a good safety net,” Councilor Duke Wells said.

In other news, the council named the Dunes City Volunteer of the Year award to Stan and Ann Anderson, who were instrumental in recruiting 19 boy scouts and team leaders to volunteer for this year's Oregon Dunes Triathlon. Those volunteers helped the city meet the minimum number of volunteers needed for the event for the first time in the history of the triathlon.
