ESSENTIAL SERVICES IN LANE COUNTY

Lane County Circuit Court, which is housed in the county's courthouse in Eugene and operated by the Oregon Judicial Department, hears cases no matter the subject, seriousness or severity of the alleged crime or the amount of money involved in the case.

Lane County Justice Court, located in Florence, is responsible for the adjudication of violations and misdemeanors filed as violations of traffic, truck-overload, truancy, civil complaints, Lane County Code violations (such as animal regulation, parks, Lane ESD and waste management complaints) and related post-adjudicative processes.

Lane County Sheriff's Office correctional services include a jail that houses 256 local offenders, a 39-bed Community Corrections Center (work release) and out-of-custody programs such as Community Service and Sheriff's Work Crew.

The department provides 20-hour patrols per day of urban, suburban and rural areas, including timberlands, waterways and coastal dune areas.

Lane County Parks includes more than 70 recreational sites within 4,600 acres of land. There is lake access at 11 sites, river access at 38 sites and beach access at three locations.

The county maintains five developed swim areas, 24 boat ramps, 400 moorage slips at three locations, 15 reservable picnic sites at five locations and 216 campsites at four locations. Note that a fee is charged at many noncity parks, picnic and day-use areas; a parking fee, for example, is required year-round at all Lane County parks.

Park passes can be purchased at the main office, 3050 N. Delta Highway, in Eugene, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday. Call 541-682-2000 for more information. Local vendors also sell passes.

Disabled veteran passes are available at a discount.

Lane County Parks is developing a comprehensive park and open space system. Give your input on the Master Plan at lanecounty.org/parks.

Lane Transit District operates 25 Park and Ride locations throughout the county along major bus routes, and many locations are served by express or direct bus service to limit travel time.

Find the corresponding bus route schedules and locations online at www.ltd.org, or call 541-687-5555.

Rhody Express, a community transit service in Florence, operates Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., and provides transportation around town.

Fares are $1 for one way or $2 for all day. Books of 20 tickets for $20 are available at the Rhody Express office at 1699 Pine St. in Florence.

The vehicle is wheelchair accessible and includes space for bicycles.

For more information, stop by the office, visit ltd.org/rhody or call 541-902-2067. Schedules are available at Florence City Hall, 250 Highway 101.

WOMEN, INFANTS & CHILDREN

The Lane County Women, Infants and Children (WIC) public health nutrition program is designed to promote lifetime nutrition and healthy behaviors in a targeted, at-risk population. The Eugene WIC office serves all of Lane County.

WIC is a special supplemental food and nutrition education program for pregnant and nursing women, infants and children. Lane County WIC provides monthly food vouchers, among other services.

During the summer, WIC families also may receive coupons to purchase fresh Oregon-grown fruits, vegetables and herbs, along with information on how to prepare healthy meals.

Lane County residents who would like to receive WIC services can contact the WIC office at 541-682-4202.

The office is at 151 W. Seventh Ave., Room 210, in Eugene, and is open Monday from 8 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. and Tuesday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
