Book Review "The House of Broken Angels" by Luis Alberto Urrea

From the Pulitzer Prize-winning author of the nonfiction book "The Devil's Highway," comes a new novel by Luis Alberto Urrea.

In his final days, beloved and ailing patriarch Miguel Angel de la Cruz, affectionately called Big Angel, has summoned his entire clan for one last legendary birthday party. But as the party approaches, his mother, nearly 100, dies herself, leading to a farewell doubleheader in a single weekend. Among the guests is Big Angel's half-brother, known as Little Angel, who must reckon with the truth that although he shares a father with his siblings, he has not, as a half gringo, shared his life.

Across two bittersweet days in their San Diego neighborhood, the revelers mingle among the palm trees and cacti, celebrating the lives of Big Angel and his mother, and recounting the many inspiring tales that have passed into family lore, the acts both ordinary and heroic that brought these citizens to a fraught and sublime country and allowed them to flourish in the land they have come to call home.

The story of the de La Cruzes is the quintessential American story. This indelible portrait of a complex family reminds us of what it means to be the first generation and to live two lives across one border. It takes us into a world we have not known while reflecting back the hopes and dreams of our own families.

Teeming with wisdom and humor, authentic at every turn, "The House of Broken Angels" is Urrea at his best, and cements his reputation as a storyteller of the first rank.

Summer Reading Grand Finales

The Summer Reading Grand Finale will be today in Mapleton at noon, at the Mapleton Branch Library 88148 River-view Drive in the Lion's Club Building.

In Florence the big event will be tomorrow, Thursday, beginning at 10 a.m.

Teens have programs continuing through this Friday, Aug. 3, with a lock-in at the library beginning at 6 p.m. that day and finishing up Saturday morning.

Don't miss out on these last great activities at the library!

Roof Progress

The roof work is on schedule and expected to be completed by early September. Please continue to watch out for closures, ladders, debris and workmen when moving around outside the library. The nearly 20-year-old shingles are being replaced as part of our new roof project this summer. No more leaks in the winter!

Friends of the Library Book Sale

Just a heads up — the next Friends of the Library book sale will be held Labor Day weekend — so mark your calendars. We'll keep you posted on hours and the particulars of the sale as get closer to the date.

Story Times on Break

Story times at the library will be on hiatus during the month of August. Come back in September when they start up on Tuesday, Sept. 7, the day after Labor Day.

For more information about the Siuslaw Public Library or its programs, stop by 1460 Ninth St. in Florence or 88148 River-view Ave. in Mapleton, or visit www.siuslawlibrary.info.

German heritage to be celebrated at Genealogical Society picnic

All are welcome to attend the Wednesday, Aug. 15, Siuslaw Genealogy Society picnic as members and guests celebrate their German heritage.

The event will begin at 4 p.m. at the Elks Lodge RV Park Recreation Hall on Mercer Lake Road.

Join the event to learn a little bit about German heritage. Hamburgers, bratwurst, buns and fun provided.

People are asked to bring their own drinks, a side dish and sense of humor to share.

Silverware, plates, cups and napkins will be available thanks to the Master Recyclers of Florence, but please bring appropriate serving dishes, utensils and containers for leftovers.

A local accordion player will start the merriment, followed by German trivia and swapping of tales. RSVP by calling Judy at 541-999-7109 or Jacquie at 541-999-5460.
