Free workshop will help explain Medicare options

The public is invited to a free Medicare workshop on Wednesday, Sept. 12, at 2 p.m. at Siuslaw Public Library's Bromley Room, 1460 Ninth St. The hour-long workshop will be presented by Linda Clarkson of Futurity First Insurance Group.

The purpose is to help explain the sometimes confusing and complicated federal health insurance program to anyone who will soon turn 65 and enroll in Medicare.

"Medicare 101" will touch on the Medicare enrollment process.

During the workshop, Clarkson will review Medicare Part A and Part B, as well as Medicare Advantage (Part C) plans and Medicare Supplement health insurance plans.

Participants also will learn how Medicare Part D Prescription Drug plans work and how to get help with the cost of prescription drugs.

The workshop is available at no charge.

To register, call Dana Dane at 541-997-1410.

An insurance sales person will be present with information and applications.

Futurity First specializes in serving the financial security and retirement needs of seniors, pre-retirees and families.

Futurity First is an independent, nationwide insurance organization specializing in retirement income and insurance protection solutions from a wide variety of leading insurance companies.

Futurity First is not connected with or endorsed by the United States government or the federal Medicare program.

Spruce Point donates to school lunch program

In July, Spruce Point Assisted Living & Memory Care, 375 Ninth St. in Florence, held a garage sale to raise money for Siuslaw School District. At the Siuslaw School Board meeting on Aug. 8, Spruce Point staff delivered a check for $1,803 to go for the school lunch program.

Military museum to recognize women veterans during Military Heritage Day

The Oregon Coast Military Museum is hosting its Military Heritage Day on Saturday, Aug. 25, starting at 2 p.m., at Sam Spayd's hangar at the Florence Municipal Airport.

The program will focus on Women in the Military with two speakers and a poster display featuring 20 women veterans from around Oregon.

Elizabeth Estabrooks, herself a veteran of the U.S. Army from 1977 to 1980, joined the Oregon Department of Veteran Affairs in 2016 and will be one of the speakers.

"I feel fortunate every single day to be able to work with women veterans and community partners and facilitate shaping policies and procedures that improve services for women veterans," she said.

Capt. Sharon Armstrong, USCGR (Retired) will also be speaking.

Armstrong began her career in 1972 under the Coast Guard Reserve's "Direct Petty Officer Program." During her 31-year career, which included assignments in the Coast Guard's District 5, District 12, and our own District 13, Armstrong became the first woman in District 12 to receive a direct commission from the Inactive Duty ranks since World War II.

Oregon Coast Military Museum is located at 2145 Kingwood St. in Florence, and open to the public Thursday through Saturday, from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Aging-in-place specialist to speak at library

On Monday, Aug. 20, Florence resident and retirement specialist Ralph Ray will hold two meetings to discuss aging in place and options for seniors.

"This is all about help for the aging and their concerned children," Ray said. "We all want to stay at our homes rather than go into a nursing facility."

According to Ray, there is a new plan offered in Oregon, through Senior Lifestyle Solutions, that potentially pays "out of pocket" expenses for custodial care at home, including skilled nursing in the home, physical therapy, speech pathology, respiratory therapy and more. Ray will talk about related details at his meetings, held at the Siuslaw Public Library, 1460 Ninth St., at 10:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. on Aug. 20.
