By NED HICKSON Siuslaw News

The annual Northwest Bronco Roundup rolled into Florence this past Wednesday morning, with Bronco enthusiasts meeting for a dunes cruise that started at Goose Pasture Staging area, where drivers discussed safety items and safe driving practices required to go onto the dunes. Thursday, members participated in the Andrew Hansen multi-course putt-putt golf tournament on courses at Sandland Adventures and Sand Dunes Frontier.

That afternoon, the group gathered for a potluck at Cleawox Lake Day-Use Area, followed by an evening beach cruise and group photo.

Friday evening, Broncos rumbled into Old Town for a parade and dinner at restaurants there. Today, events continue with a show and shine at Three Rivers Casino, with a kids' play area inside, along with a canned food drive.

The Northwest Bronco Roundup wraps up tomorrow.

• Look for fish in deeper water, where it's cooler.

• Focus on warmwater species like bass, crappie, bluegill and walleye.

• Travel to higher elevation lakes and streams where the water, and you, will be cooler.
