Host a scholarship for area students

Becoming a local scholarship provider is a way community members can make an immediate impact on the lives of our area graduates.

Local scholarships are immensely important and help pave the way for students to achieve their goals of higher education. Anyone can set up a local scholarship — business owners, service clubs, public or private organizations and even individual community members can become scholarship providers.

On Tuesday, Oct. 30, Siuslaw High School's ASPIRE team will be holding an information meeting for any and all Florence community members interested in becoming a new local scholarship provider.

Anyone interested is invited to attend and learn how to become a new local scholarship provider, why local scholarships are so important to our students and community, explore the ever-rising cost of colleges and learn about our local scholarship awards ceremony.

The presentation will be held at the Siuslaw Public Library, 1460 Ninth St., in the Bromley Room, beginning at 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 30. No RSVP required.

Contact Siuslaw High School Counselor Steven Moser at smoser@siuslaw.k12.or.us for more information.

Show of support

Supporters of immigrant rights gathered earlier this month at the United Methodist Church to show support for those rights as well as their opposition to Oregon Measure 105. Members of the Rural Organizing Project spoke to the small but enthusiastic crowd that was on hand, which included many members of local Quaker groups.

Everything 'Odd-umn' at FEC's October art exhibit

The Florence Events Center Gallery Committee recently invited the community to come and enjoy various mediums of Art in the October Everything Odd-umns Exhibit during its exhibit in the FEC's Gallery 5.

The show features art that is both seasonal and unusual and will be up until Oct. 29.

Fall lends itself to great artistic opportunities, including beautiful autumn colors, the fall harvest and wildlife preparing for winter. It is also a time for scarecrows, ghosts, goblins, and everything spooky to get ready for Halloween under the "Odd-Umn" theme.

Artist in the Everything Oddumn show includes; Pattie Brooks Anderson, Karylynn Keppol, John Gavin, Christopher K. Kowitz, Sherry Secreast, Julie Peake, Gene Olson, Tamarah Phillips, Teresa Zook, Norma Burkett and Kathy Elfers.

The Odd-ums Show is going on at the same time the Patricia Stutz Show is hanging in Gallery One. Patricia Stutz is a local artist from Reed-sport. She has been passionate about art since childhood, but really only has been getting back to painting since retirement several years ago.

Stutz has spent many hours enhancing her techniques in both oil and acrylics, including studying with another local artist, John Leasure.

Seascapes and landscapes and the variety of creatures inhabiting these areas are the subjects that Stutz enjoys painting.

Odd-umn artwork hangs on display in Gallery Five.
