

GENERAL NEWS

LRAPA outdoor burning season delayed once more

The fall outdoor burning season will begin on Saturday, Oct. 27, for many Lane County residents. The season was originally set to start Oct. 1, but was delayed until Oct. 13, and delayed again until Oct. 27 due to continued dry weather and fire danger.

The Lane County Fire Defense Board and Oregon Department of Forestry decided to postpone the opening of the season in Lane County since weather conditions have been too dry.

The limited precipitation and dew the county has seen are not been enough to reduce fire risks and allow residential outdoor burning. If the same weather patterns continue, the season could be delayed further.

Outdoor burning, also known as open or backyard burning, allows some Lane County residents to burn dry woody yard debris that was generated on their own residential property.

Rules concerning outdoor burning differ throughout the county, with some cities banning burning within city limits all together.

Before starting a fire, all residents must check the daily burning advisory, which indicates to the community if burning is prohibited on a given day.

The advisory also tells residents when all fires must be extinguished by.

The daily burning advisory can be found by calling Lane Regional Air Protection Agency's advisory line at 541-726-3976 or by visiting www.lrapa.org.

To prevent any uncontrolled fires, the Fire Defense Board reminds all residents that all outdoor burning must be constantly attended until extinguished with water nearby.

Due to the heavy wildfire smoke intrusions this summer, LRAPA encourages residents to explore alternatives to burning.

Okto-Fur Weiner Race Winner

This week, Jeanna Petersen from Siuslaw News/Florence Wiener Dog Races presented Friends of Florence Van Fans President Sharon Gelmstedt a “check” for $1,740. The money was raised at the sixth annual Florence Wiener Dog Races on Oct. 13, in conjunction with Okto-Fur-Fest at the Florence Events Center. The event was sponsored by Siuslaw News and the Florence Events Center. “Thank you to all that came out to watch the races,” Petersen said. “It was a fun afternoon and for such a great cause! We appreciate everyone who had a part in making this donation possible.”

Oregon Coast Military Museum announces fall events

The Oregon Coast Military Museum will be sharing two fall happenings for the community.

A wood carved eagle donated by Heffy Gallery of Florence is currently being raffled off. This highly detailed wood-burned carving is made of myrtle wood and driftwood.

Only 160 tickets are being sold for this unique piece of art valued at $800. The piece, created by artist Dan Heffron, whose gallery is located at 37 Street and Highway 101, is an example of the artist's motto: “Best Wood Carvings on the Coast.”

Tickets at $5 each and are available during open hours at the museum, located on King-wood Street.

To celebrate Halloween, the museum is offering free admission on the Oct. 31 to anyone who appears in costume or in uniform. Volunteer Judith Turk said, “I always like to dress in costume for Halloween and that's a day I'm on duty, so it should be a lot of fun for both us and the Visitors.”

The Oregon Coast Military Museum, 2145 Kingwood St., is open to the public Wednesday through Sunday, from noon to 4 p.m.

'PostCard Art — Wish You Were Here' makes call for artists

The public is invited to create PostCard Art for an exhibition themed “Wish You Were Here!” Community members are invited to create postcard art using whatever medium they wish in a 4x6 postcard format.

Templates and surfaces are available at BeauxArts Fine Art Materials. For ideas or to have questions answered, come by BeauxArts, 2285 Highway 101, Suite H in the Costal Fitness Plaza.

There is no cost to participate and all artistic abilities are encouraged. The show runs from November to December.

Complete entry information, application and consignment agreements are available at BeauxArts Fine Art Materials or online at BeauxArtsFineArt.com.

Application and consignment agreement is due Oct. 27 to the Florence Events Center or BeauxArts. Deadline for Art to be turn into the FEC is Oct. 30, from 9 to 11 a.m. An artist and community reception will be held Dec. 3, from 5 to 7 p.m. in Galleries One and Five at the FEC. Artists, family, friends, neighbors and community members are invited to attend.

This event is sponsored by BeauxArts Fine Art Materials and the Florence Events Center Gallery Committee.
