Spirituali-tea meeting to discuss wisdom, religion

Residents interested in discussing diverse spiritual ideas are welcome to join a group that has been meeting for years at 875 Seventh St. on Monday, Nov. 12, at 6:30 p.m.

In the words of Mahatma Gandhi: “Like the bee gathering honey from the different flowers, the wise person accepts the essence of the different scriptures and sees only the good in all religions.”

Prayer request from the prayer pole in the garden of the Florence Playhouse, 208 Laurel, will be read at the end of the gathering.

Unitarians to observe Armistice Day on Sunday

Dr. Rev. Ruth Miller will lead the Armistice Day worship service on Sunday, Nov. 11, from 10 to 11 a.m.

“The Great War slowly came to a halt. An agreement was reached to cease fire and Europe collectively breathed a sigh of relief,” said Miller. “Thus it was that Nov. 11, 1918, became a day to remember. Now the date has a different intention, which has created controversy.”

Dr. Miller will create a space to explore the historic, current and possible future focus of this day as the values are clarified in community.

FUUF, 87738 Highway 101 at Heceta Beach Road, is wheelchair accessible.

Each service concludes with refreshments and a dialogue circle to explore the questions that come up during each worship service.

Windermere Real Estate to ‘Share the Warmth’ during winter months

Real Estate brokers throughout Oregon and Southwest Washington are gearing up for Windermere Real Estate's annual Share the Warmth campaign. Through Dec. 19, Windermere brokers will be collecting new or gently used adult-sized coats and twin-sized blankets for the local community.

In the Florence area, the donations will benefit Siuslaw Outreach Services, a local nonprofit that helps people in need.

The charity is also adding new socks to its wish list. The public can stop by the Windermere offices to drop off donations, which is located at 1625 12th St.

Serving our community for over 15 years.
