OBITUARIES

JOHNSON—Carol Anne “Bubbles” Johnson, 82, of Florence. She was born Dec. 9, 1936, in Los Angeles, Calif., to Paul and Mary Louise Skinner.

Carol Johnson

She married William “Bill” Johnson on Sept. 11, 1965. She enjoyed traveling and volunteering at the Oregon Coast Humane Society.

She is survived by her best friend Ilene “Buddy” Lewis; her sister Jo Barrett of Central Point; and nephews Rob Barrett, Scott Barrett and their families, of Jackson, Wyo.

A service will be held Tuesday, Nov. 2, beginning at 11 a.m. at St. Andrews Church (at the corner of 17th and Tamarack streets).

KRAUSE—Harlan Jay Krause, 82, of Florence, passed away Oct. 18, 2018, of age-related causes.

Harlan was born July 10, 1936, in Bowdle, S.D., to Sam Fred and Agnes (Merkel) Krause, the eldest of two boys.

Later, they moved to Oregon and eventually settled in Mapleton.

Harlan graduated from Mapleton High School in 1954. After graduating, he was hired at Davidson Industries. He served in the U.S. Army for two years and was posted overseas in South Korea in the demilitarized zone. He then returned to employment at Davidson Industries and worked there supervising all sawmills until retiring in 1984.

He loved sleek, fast cars and drag raced through his late 20s. He was well known in the local racing circuits.

In 1961, he met Lois Esther Smith. They had three daughters: Rachelle, Sonja and Dione. They enjoyed family excursions, touring the United States by auto, and snow skiing on weekends.

He and Lois enjoyed traveling together and had many memorable overseas trips, sometimes with his work colleagues. Harlan was very mechanically inclined and enjoyed learning.

He obtained a pilot license and kept up with new technology, including how to program computers. His family felt he could fix anything.

Lois preceded him in death in 1992, after a long battle with cancer.

Harlan remarried in 1993, and they eventually moved to Florida because they enjoyed the tropical climate.

His second daughter, Sonja Brus, preceded him in death in 2017. His second wife, Sharon, preceded him in death in January of this year.

He moved to Florence early this year. This enabled family and friends to be able to visit him frequently.

Harlan is lovingly remembered by those who survive him: his brother Morris (wife Gayle) Krause; daughters Rachelle (husband Kim Campbell) and Dione (husband Jeff Young); nine grandchildren, two great-grandsons, five nieces and nephews, and many friends.

A Life Celebration is planned for Saturday, Nov. 24, at 10:30 a.m. at Cross Road Assembly, 1380 10th St., in Florence.

Send flowers to 5030 Alder Dr. in Florence.

From Bella's to You!

A Huge Thank you to every “one” of you!

Fondly, Kathi Casey/Cannallo

Oregon consumers warned about survey scam

SALEM — The Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services has issued a cease-and-desist order against Helen Kyung Lee and Joany Inc., also known as Impact Health Inc., for forging consumers’ signatures on insurance documents, which violates the Oregon insurance code. The department, through its Division of Financial Regulation, is pursuing fines and seeking to revoke the licenses of Lee and Joany Inc.

Lee and Impact Health Inc. offered consumers a $50 gift card for filling out an insurance survey through either Facebook or Craigslist. The survey required consumers to provide a copy of their health care identification card with a valid effective date and member number. Lee, or representatives of Impact Health Inc., then forged consumers’ signatures on a form that identifies the consumers’ insurance agent, also known as an agent of record form. This allowed Lee to receive commissions from insurance companies without the consumers’ consent or knowledge.

Approximately, 1,600 Oregonians completed the survey in 2017, and more than 900 agent of record forms were filed as a result. The division has attempted to contact several consumers who filled out the survey. At least 12 have confirmed that their signatures were forged, and that they did not ask Lee nor Impact Health Inc. to be their agent.

The division wants anyone that filled out a survey from Impact Health Inc. to do two things: Contact your insurance company to confirm it has the correct agent on file for you. If you filled out the survey, but do not have an agent, confirm that your insurance company does not have one listed for you.

Oregonians who learn that the agent of record is not correct, contact the division’s consumer advocates at 888-877-4894 (toll-free) to report it.
