

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

WILSON—Mitchell Wallace Wilson, 93, passed away on Nov. 21, 2018.

He was born in Pullman Wash., July 15, 1925, to Chester Randolph Wilson and Gladys Seibert Wilson.

He married Lucille Rose Carter on June 29, 1951, in Florence, Ore.

He enlisted in the U.S. Army at age 17, and was in five major campaigns, including the landing on Omaha Beach, Northern France, Battle of the Bulge in Ardennes Forest, Rhineland, and Central Europe.

He was in the 3rd Armored Infantry Spearhead Division. He was a staff sergeant, a marksman, squad leader and in the Military Police.

Mitchell retired from Lane County Public Works, where he was an equipment operator. He enjoyed hunting, fishing and camping, but his greatest joy came from spending time with his family.

He is survived by his wife Lucille; his son Randy and wife Robin; his daughter Cindi and husband Ben; his son Brad and fiancée Lisa; eight grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

He was loved dearly and will be greatly missed.

At the request of Mitchell, a private family service will be held.

Burns's Riverside Chapel

Florence Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

MANSETH—Robert (Bob) Arne Manseth, beloved father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, passed away peacefully in Portland, Ore., on Oct. 24, 2018, after a courageous battle with Parkinson's Disease.

He was born Nov. 21, 1929, in Eugene, Ore., to Magnus and Esther Manseth.

Bob graduated from Oklahoma A&M with a bachelor's degree in civil engineering. He was proud of his military service in the U.S. Marines and U.S. Air Force, and was stationed in the United Kingdom in the 1950s.

It was in Edinburgh, Scotland, that he met his first wife, Anita.

Bob and Anita were married at the Scandinavian Lutheran Church in 1954. Their daughter, Gail, was born in Prestwick, Scotland, in 1955, and their son, Ron, was born in Ruislip, England, in 1956, both on U.S. Air Force bases.

Shortly after, the couple moved to the United States and they resided in Detroit, Mich., and Portland, Ore., before settling in Florence in 1965.

Their daughter, Lisa, was born in 1966 in Florence.

Bob remarried twice in the years after.

Bob spent his years in Florence working as a civil engineer and land surveyor; he also was the creator and owner of Indian Forest, a Highway 101 landmark for 40 years (Laurel Bay Gardens now occupies the building Bob built many years ago).

Bob was a member of the Elks Lodge and when he wasn't busy working would go into town to visit with friends at the Elks, Traveler's Cove or the casino. He spent many holidays with family in Eugene, Portland and Seattle, and enjoyed taking his family to dinner or just chatting with a glass of wine.

Bob was preceded in death by his father, Magnus Manseth; his mother, Esther Manseth; and his brother, Karl Manseth.

He is survived by his daughter, Gail Yoshikawa (husband Bert, daughter Courtney, son James, daughter-in-law Trisha, and great-granddaughter Kalyn); son Ron Manseth (sons Eric and Jordan); and daughter Lisa Sanchez (husband Edwin and sons Andrew and Nick).

A private family memorial service will be held at the Willamette National Cemetery in Portland on Nov. 30.

A celebration of his life will be held at 1258 Restobar in Florence on Saturday, Dec. 1, from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.

The family asks friends to come for food and stories in remembrance of their father and friend.

CRADDOCK—David Craddock, 89, of Florence, died Nov. 12, 2018.

He was born June 6, 1929. He was known as "Smilin' Dave" for his wide grin, congenial personality and piano playing at many local venues — especially Traveler's Cove, where he had a steady gig as part of The Jukebox Kings, a swinging trio that enchanted dancers and listeners.

TERNYIK—Joyce Ternyik, 81, of Florence, passed away Nov. 22, 2018.

Services will be held at a later date through Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

BUSS—Wesley L. Buss, 97, of Florence, passed away Nov. 23, 2018.

Arrangements are being held through Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

SIMMONS—Arlene L. Simmons, 77, of Florence, passed away Nov. 25, 2018.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

CLARIFICATION

The free Thanksgiving meal served at Elks Lodge #1858 (published in the Nov. 24 edition on page A1) on Thanksgiving Day was sponsored exclusively by the Florence Kiwanis Club.

While there were volunteers from other organizations present, the event was managed and presented by the Florence Kiwanis.

Because of You.

GREAT FUTURES START HERE.

BOYS & GIRLS CLUB
OF WESTERN LANE COUNTY

When we reflect on what we're all thankful for this Thanksgiving, the kids and teens at The Boys & Girls Clubs Of Western Lane County are thankful for YOU.

Your generous support has given more kids a safe place after school that they consider a second home, activities that strengthen their minds and bodies, and mentors who genuinely care about their bright futures.

Behind every life changed is someone who cares. We are happy our "someone" is YOU! We know there are a lot of organizations out there that need your support. We are honored and grateful for your support of The Boys & Girls Clubs of Western Lane County.

It is not magic that makes dreams come true for kids, it is people like YOU. Thank you for making the Boys & Girls Club a priority in your life. Thank YOU for investing in the future of our kids.
