Cold Weather Shelter receives new flags

The Florence Emergency Cold Weather Shelter received a donation of nine new flags for their program.

The flags are placed at strategic locations around Florence to alert the community when the Emergency Cold Weather Shelter is open.

Greg Wood, President of the FECWS Board, received the flags from Linda Castro, Sandy Zinn and Susan Sherman. The Emergency Cold Weather Shelter is open on nights when the forecasted low temperature will be 32 degrees or colder, or 35 degrees with a high probability of rain.

Currently, the Shelter uses The Presbyterian Church of the Siuslaw, with New Life Lutheran Church as it's back up location.
