SMS WRESTLERS PIN OUTSTANDING SEASON

Siuslaw Middle School's Joel Sissel gets a pin on the way to winning his first district title in the 6-7-grade bracket at 110 pounds.

With several new members joining the Siuslaw Middle School wrestling roster this year, as well as the return of seasoned veterans like eighth-graders Mason Buss (110 lbs.) and Yoskar Delamora (90 lbs.) who picked up their third-consecutive district titles this year, "We had a pretty exciting season," said coach Stecher Buss. "We had a great turnout. The experience and work ethic of our eighth-grade team is going to be fun to watch over the next few years in high school."

Eighth-graders Cayden Gray (95 lbs.), Ian Sissel (140 lbs.) and Jonathan Rose (175 lbs.) each claimed their first district titles, with Wyatt Tatum (132 lbs.) and Logan Wells (150 lbs.) claiming second-place medals.

In the 6th- and 7th-grade division for SMS, Joel Sissel (110 lbs.), Elliot LaCrosse (117 lbs.), Dayne Muller (132 lbs.), Cort Wagginer (140 lbs.) each landed first-place medals at district, along with second place for Cameron Groves (85 lbs.) and third place for Leo Robertson (95 lbs.)

In their first year on the team, wrestlers Terry Elliot (110 lbs.), Dalton McGowan (102 lbs.) and Auston Potter (132 lbs.) placed third, fourth and fourth, respectively.

The district tournament officially wrapped up the regular season for the program, "but some of the kids will continue on to regionals," said Buss. "If they place within the top three at regionals, they will qualify for the Middle School State Wrestling Tournament, where the top 16 wrestlers in Oregon will compete for championship titles."

Kiwanis announces details for 2019 golf tourney

Dick Shores, 2019 President of Florence Kiwanis, has announced that the annual charity golf tournament will be held Saturday, June 22, at Ocean Dunes Golf Links. Tournament proceeds will go to benefit the Kiwanis Doernbecher Children's Cancer Program (KDCCP) and local youth programs.

This is the second-annual tournament, building on the success of last year's tournament that raised funds for KDCCP and local programs, including The Boys and Girls Club, the 4Kids Back pack Program, and the Children's Winter Concert.

Tournament Chair, Lonnie Iholts, said Shores has even bigger plans and is hoping to improve on last year with more sponsors, better prizes for tournament winners, and an online auction with merchandise valued at more than $5,000.

Last year, Kiwanis limited the field to 32 teams and plans to do the same this year. By keeping the number of teams down, and making significant improvements in the check-in process, the lines at check-in were minimal and the tournament play time was under four hours.

"These are things that all tournament participants appreciate," said Shores, who has helped coordinate more than 100 golf tournaments over his years in Florence — including 50 or so charity fundraisers.
