Saturday's Be Ready Disaster Preparedness Expo brought hundreds of people through the Florence Events Center as they learned ways to prevent and mitigate injuries and damages to home and properties. In addition, PeaceHealth Peace Harbor taught two classes on emergency suturing. The expo, sponsored by Siuslaw News and Western Lane Emergency Operations Group, brings speakers and vendors together each year to provide the Siuslaw region information on preparation. For important safety tips, as well as information on preparing a 72-hour emergency "go-bag," visit wleog.org.

City Club to discuss protecting the earth Thursday

City Club of Florence's April presentation will focus on recycling of goods, plastics and protecting our earth.

The first speaker will be Janell Morgan, who has been the Executive Director of Florence Habitat for Humanity since January of 2018. She will be speaking specifically on the Habitat Restore, which is a store that sells a variety of gently used home goods including appliances, furniture, paint, doors, windows, plumbing supplies and many other items.

Morgan, who just became a Master Recycler, will provide an informative slide presentation.

Learn how you can remodel or even build a house using mostly reused materials while saving the environment. She will also explain why some items cannot be accepted.

The next speaker will be Eileen Angilletta, who is the Communications Chairperson for Precious Plastics of Florence. Precious Plastics started about a year ago as a group of citizens who were very concerned when the City of Florence announced that their garbage haulers could no longer accept a wide variety of plastics in their recycling.

Angilletta will give an update on what the group has accomplished. She teaches a variety of classes at LCC in Florence including a variety of dance classes.

Sandy Todd and Maureen Miltenberger, co-chairpersons of the Siuslaw Climate Alliance, will be giving an update of the progress being made towards our second annual Earth Day Celebration, which will be held this year on the Port of Siuslaw Boardwalk on Saturday, April 20, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The theme this year is "Protecting Our Species."

The City Club presentation will be held Thursday, April 4, beginning at noon at the Ocean Dunes Golf Links, located at 3345 Munsel Lake Rd.

Community Coalition 'jazzed about volunteers' on April 10

When the Florence Area Community Coalition (FACC) held its 10th annual Volunteer Recognition event and celebrated the coalition's 30th birthday last April, nearly 175 fellow volunteers joined the festivities to honor all those who give so generously of their time and make Florence a wonderful place to live.

This year, FACC will be "Jazzed About Our Volunteers" on Wednesday, April 10, from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Florence Events Center, 715 Quince St.

The Volunteer Recognition, sponsored by FACC and the City of Florence, will feature a jazz guitarist and delicious refreshments. It will be a good resource for networking opportunities.

The keynote address will be by Russ Pierson, dean of Lane Community College Florence Center and president of the Florence Area Chamber of Commerce.

FACC will award a scholarship to an outstanding high school student and present its annual volunteer recognition slide show.

The cost is $8 per person, but local groups can treat their volunteers by buying a table for eight people for $60.
