Perry Mattfeld ("Shameless") stars in this new dramatic thriller as Murphy Mason, a hard-living and harder-drinking 20-something blind woman who lives with her supportive best friend, Jess (Brooke Markham, "Foursome"), and Pretzel, the guide dog Murphy barely tolerates. She also befriends the teenage Tyson (Thamela Mpumlwana) after he saves her from a mugging, so Murphy is horrified when she stumbles upon what she's convinced is Tyson's lifeless body in an alley. Somehow, the corpse disappears before the police arrive. Rich Sommer ("Mad Men") and Casey Deidrick ("Days of Our Lives") also star.

A Discovery of WitchesSunday at 9 p.m., 11 p.m., 3:30 a.m. on AMC

After scoring a striking cult success on streaming platforms, this adaptation of Deborah Harkness' best-selling fantasy novel makes its basic cable debut on both AMC and its sister channel BBC America. Set in a modern world where witches, vampires and daemons secretly co-exist with humans, the story opens in a library at Oxford, where American historian (and closet witch) Diana Bishop (Teresa Palmer) inadvertently calls up an ancient magical text. Unfortunately, it's one that geneticist (and vampire) Matthew Clairmont (Matthew Goode) wants to acquire for himself.
