The April meeting of the Siuslaw Viewfinders Camera Club (SVCC) included an opportunity to learn how to photo stack (merge multiple photos to create an image impossible to get in camera) from Curt Peters. The theme of this month's printed photo competition was "Light Painting" and the winners were as follows:

- Third place went to Craig Shreeve with a photo of Heceta Light house with the night sky full of stars and a large orange moon.

- Second-Place was awarded to Jane Pittenger's photo "I'm going to Ride in My Yellow Boat," a black and white photo of docks and a moored yellow boat carefully lit at night.

- First Place was awarded to Stephen Jones for a studio shot of what looks like ice being dropped into a shot of whiskey with the splash and droplets frozen in air.

The next meeting will be May 6, at 6 p.m., in the Bromley room at the Siuslaw Library. The theme for the photo contest will be "Stack and Stacks" in keeping with our mini class at the last meeting.

This meeting's class will be about "The Long Shot."

Anyone interested in learning and sharing photography is welcome to attend.

FUUF to discuss defining personal meaning of Easter

On Easter, April 21, from 10 to 11 a.m. at the Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship, Rev. Dr. Marcia Pearce will share a message titled: "What Does Easter Mean to You, Personally?"

"For some, Easter is just the time of the year. For others, it is time to honor the life and teachings of the man Jesus, who became the Christ. Yet again, it is the time for another celebration, one with children and Easter eggs," said Rev. Pearce. "For us, as adults, I believe it is important to ask ourselves what the real meaning of Easter is — to us, personally... Can we perhaps have a new idea, something that will help us break out into a whole new way of being?"

Rev. Pearce will share a fun and new way to honor that universal desire.

FUUF, located at 87738 Highway 101 at Heceta Beach Road, is wheelchair accessible. Each service concludes with refreshments and a dialogue circle to explore the questions that come up during each worship service.

For more information, visit the FUUF website at www.florenceuuf.org.

Woahink Lake Association to host annual clean-up

The Woahink Lake Association (WLA) is seeking volunteers to help with its annual roadside litter collection day on Saturday, April 27. Volunteers will meet, rain or shine, at the East Woahink Lake Day Use Area at 9:30 a.m. to get their location assignments and pick up safety vests.

The clean-up along Canary Road and Clear Lake Road will take place between 10 a.m. and about 1 p.m.

To volunteer or find out more, contact John Colwell at 541-590-3357.
