OBITUARIES

OLSON—Donald Warren Olson, born Sept. 17, 1935, in Los Angeles, Calif., to Raymond and Marguerite Olson, passed away of cancer on Jan. 5, 2019, while visiting the family's long-time hometown in the Santa Ynez Valley of California.

Don Olson

Don is survived by his beloved family: Joan (Gebel), his wife of 62 years; their five children: Mark, Matt (Lisa), Larry (Cindy), Julie von Winckelmann (Herb) and John (Lucy); 13 grandchildren; 3 great-grandchildren; a brother, Tim Olson (Cynthia); a sister, Kristine Liniger; as well as many nieces, nephews, cousins, godchildren and his 96-year-old aunt "Pinkie."

After raising their children in the beautiful country atmosphere of Los Olivos, Calif., in 1996, Don and Joan moved to Florence to enjoy the beauty of coastal life, continue their active involvement in church ministries — and where Don recently retired after 57 years as a realtor.

Former pastor and friend Fr. David Brown will celebrate a Memorial Mass for Don on Saturday, May 11, at 11 a.m. at St. Mary Our Lady of the Dunes Catholic Church, with a reception follow.

In honor of Don's love of children and family, consider making a donation in his name to the Florence Pregnancy and Parenting Center, P.O. Box 1732, Florence, Ore., 97439.

KRUEGER—James Krueger passed away on April 13, 2019, after an extended illness.

He was born in Warren, Ohio, on July 23, 1940, to Earl and Mary Krueger; he was the youngest of four children.

Jim's quick wit and perseverance characterized his entire life. After graduation from high school, he joined the Air Force, where he was assigned to Food Services. By the time that he was discharged three-and-a-half years later, he had risen from the position of line cook to being responsible for procurement of provisions for a base of 2,000 airmen.

After his discharge from the service, he left a position in commerce to obtain a degree at Oregon State University, he was then the owner-operator of several businesses, including two outlets of the noteworthy "Sensorium", an innovative approach to gifting and lifestyle.

He then left the business world to become a regulator for the State of Oregon, using his business experience and interpersonal skills to rise from an entry level position to middle management in the Financial Affairs Division.

Jim was preceded in death by his three siblings. He is survived by his life-partner of 55 years, and as his husband for the past 5 years, Mark Wagener.

Surviving relatives from Phoenix, Ariz., are: nieces Julie Jakubisin, Cathy Gabriel, Debbie Gile and Lisa Jakubisin and nephew John Jakubisin.

He is also survived by his sister-in-law Virginia Meeker and Connie Donegan; and his nephew Paul Meeker of Florence.

With the care of his family and hospice staff, he was able to fulfill his desire to die at home, viewing his beloved vista of the Siuslaw River and the 101 bridge from his Florence condominium.

A gathering of friends and family in celebration of his life will occur on Saturday, June 15, at 2 p.m. at the Off Bay Street Bistro, 165 Maple St. in Old town, Florence.

Burns' Riverside Chapel in charge of all arrangements.
