

Breakfast at Shorewood to benefit firefighters

Shorewood Senior Living, 1451 Spruce St., will be hosting a breakfast on Friday, June 21, from 7 to 9 a.m.

Choose from pork chili verde over hash browns and topped with two eggs or baked strawberry French toast with whipped cream. Juice, coffee, tea or milk are included.

Cost is $15 per person with all proceeds going to Siuslaw Valley Fire and Rescue's emergency fund.

Tickets are available at the Shorewood office or at the door day of the event.

For more information, call Niki Hill at Shorewood at 541-997-8202.

Come for a breakfast and help our local firefighters.

Library Tidings

News about the Siuslaw Public Library

Library Tidings, a regular feature of the Siuslaw News, features news about upcoming Siuslaw Public Library programs for adults and children, new books and videos, and other library news of interest to the community.

Library Tidings by Kevin Mittge

Book Review “The Pandemic Century” by Mark Honigsbaum

Ever since the 1918 Spanish influenza pandemic, scientists have dreamed of preventing catastrophic outbreaks of infectious disease. Yet despite a century of medical progress, viral and bacterial disasters continue to take us by surprise, inciting panic and dominating news cycles.

From the Spanish flu to the 1924 outbreak of pneumonic plague in Los Angeles to the 1930 “parrot fever” pandemic, through the more recent SARS, Ebola and Zika epidemics, the last 100 years have been marked by a succession of unanticipated pandemic alarms.

In “The Pandemic Century,” a lively account of scares both infamous and less known, Mark Honigsbaum combines reporting with the history of science and medical sociology to artfully reconstruct epidemiological mysteries and the ecology of infectious diseases.

Readers meet dedicated disease detectives, obstructive or incompetent public health officials and brilliant scientists often blinded by their own knowledge of bacteria and viruses. We also see how fear of disease exacerbates racial, religious, and ethnic tensions — even though as the epidemiologists Malik Peiris and Yi Guan write, “‘nature’ remains the greatest bioterrorist of all.”

These pandemics remind us of the limits of scientific knowledge, as well as the role that human behavior and technologies play in the emergence and spread of microbial diseases.

Summer Reading is Here!

Summer Reading at the Siuslaw Public Library began on June 1! Be sure to sign up for the program — it’s open to all ages — children, teens and adults! Lots of great programs and prizes will be available. Pick up the packet appropriate for your age group at the front desk.

Endowment Books Tomorrow!

Don’t forget that tomorrow, June 6, at 1 p.m., librarian Kevin Mittge will be presenting a selection of this year’s endowment books, the purchase of which is made possible by the contributions to the Siuslaw Public Library’s Endowment Fund, administered by Western Lane Community Foundation.

Attendees will get the first chance to view and check out some wonderful new library books.

Judy Fleagle to Speak

Judy Fleagle, well-known local author, will be speaking at the library on Saturday, June 15, at 1 p.m., about her latest book “Oregon Coast Guide for the Unexpected!!!” This book describes a number of unusual and intriguing points of interest to visit along the Oregon Coast.

Look for more information in next week’s Tidings.

Friends of the Library Book Sale

The Friends of the Library will be holding their next book sale this Saturday, June 8, and Sunday, June 9, from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. each day in the Bromley Room at the library.

Friends of the Library members can come to a special preview sale Saturday morning, from 9 a.m. until 10 a.m. Memberships are available at the door.

Friends president Linda Weight said, “If you want to stock up on some great summer reading at great prices, this is your chance!”

Proceeds from the sale benefit the Library District in many ways, including equipment, support of the summer reading program and the Library Endowment Fund.

Coast Connection, FRAA put out call to artists

Pacific Publishing and the Florence Regional Arts Alliance (FRAA) are inviting artists to submit their 2-D artwork for the cover of the 2020 edition of the Central Coast Connection Phone Book.

Artwork must be the original creation of the artist submitting and made within the last three years. Paintings can be in any medium (oil, pastel, watercolor, etc.), but please not photography this year. Artwork should relate to the region (Yachats to Reedsport, east to Deadwood), and may show scenery, buildings, people or other areas of interest.

Artists do not need to be local residents, and entries are limited to three per artist.

The artwork will be featured on the cover of the publication, which is delivered to almost 20,000 residents annually. Additionally, a $500 cash prize is being offered by Pacific Publishing to the winner, with all rights to publish the artwork for any promotional purposes determined by Pacific Publishing.

The deadline for submission is Sunday, June 30, and must be submitted online at www.fraaoregon.org/central-coast-entry-instructions.html.

Though submissions are done electronically, the winner will need to provide the original artwork, suitably framed, to Pacific Publishing in exchange for the cash prize.

The winning artist will receive a photo and bio in the phone book, and Pacific Publishing will determine the winner by Monday, July 8. Notice of being chosen as the winner will be made via email during that week.

For additional information, visit fraaoregon.org or email fraaoregon@gmail.com.
