Learn About Auto Window Tint

(NAPS)—Automotive window films, or tint, offer a variety of benefits, such as reduced exposure to the sun's harmful UV rays, a cooler interior by rejecting up to 55 percent of the sun's heat, reduced glare and more safety for the occupants.

Window films may hold glass fragments together that can result from a shattered window, reduce premature cracking and fading of the car's interior and prevent 99 percent of the sun's UV rays from damaging your skin and eyes through the normal unprotected glass found in side and rear windows of vehicles.

Throughout North America automotive window film is measured objectively by Visible Light Transmittance standards, or the percentage of light passing through glass, and subjective-ly whether a driver can be seen from the outside looking in, explains the nonprofit International Window Film Association.

Government authorities regulate how dark window tints can be, so you have to make sure your vehicle complies. If in doubt, you can visit www.iwfa.com and click the 'State Law Chart' tab listed under 'News & Events'. You can find a free automotive tint booklet at <https://iwfa.com/consumers/Literature>.

Intrigue, Secrets And Self-Discovery In Four Great Summer Reads

(NAPS)—In this issue of "BookBites," BookTrib.com showcases four captivating tales to fill those long days at the beach.

"You Cannot Mess This Up" by Amy W. Daughters

A funny, wrenching novel about what it's like to come home. Amy Daughters returns to her hometown over Thanksgiving to discuss her parents' estate—and finds herself hurled back in time. Suddenly, it's 1978, and she is forced to spend 36 hours in her childhood home with her nuclear family, including her 10-year-old self. Over the next 36 hours, she reconsiders every feeling she's ever had.

She redefines her difficult relationships with her family members and, ultimately, realizes that her life story matters. In the end, she's convinced she'll never be the same.

You can purchase "You Cannot Mess This Up" (She Writes Press) at <https://amzn.to/2WQW2zk>.

"We Never Told" by Diana Altman

Set in an era when unwed mothers were shamed and pressured into giving their newborns away, "We Never Told" is a slice of America when the Hollywood lifestyle was at its height. That era still haunts the country today, because those babies did not disappear; they grew up and went searching.

Sonya is determined to unearth her glamorous mother's secret, but when she finally does, she discovers something much worse than those around her ever could have imagined.

For a copy of "We Never Told" (She Writes Press), go to <https://amzn.to/2KxC3z5>.

"Montauk" by Nicola Harrison

"Montauk" captures the glamour and extravagance of a summer by the sea with the story of a woman torn between the life she chose and the life she desires. It's 1938. For three months, this fishing village serves as a playground for the wealthy elite of New York City.

Beatrice Bordeaux will be spending 12 weeks sequestered with the high-society wives at The Montauk Manor while her husband, increasingly remote, pursues other interests. Bea has never felt comfortable among these privileged women. As she drifts further from them, Bea finds herself drawn to a man nothing like her husband. Inspiring a strength and courage she had almost forgotten, his presence forces her to face a haunting tragedy of her past and question her future.

"The Last Resort" by Marissa Stapley

The Harmony Resort promises hope for struggling marriages. Run by celebrity power couple Drs. Miles and Grace Markell, it offers a chance for partners to repair their relationships in a luxurious setting.

Johanna and Ben are married but don't know each other at all. Shell and Colin fight constantly, but what has really torn them apart is too devastating to discuss. When they begin Harmony's therapy program, it's clear that Harmony is not all it seems—and neither are Miles and Grace. What are they hiding and what price will these couples pay for finding out? As a tropical storm descends, secrets are revealed, loyalties are tested and not one single person will remain unchanged.

You can get "The Last Resort" (Graydon House) at <https://amzn.to/2MMmpTL>.
