

Lights for Liberty Vigil set for Friday

Florence community members will gather at 6:30 p.m. on Friday, July 12, at the Florence Methodist Church, 333 Kingwood St., for a vigil to pray for immigrants being held inhumanely in camps along the U.S. border.

The Florence group is joining other vigils worldwide to bring awareness to immigrant camp conditions.

Pastors from local Florence congregations are invited to come lead prayers of love and support. People from the community are invited to bring messages of compassion and a candle to light. This is a positive, caring event.

Book Review “Underland: A Deep Time Journey” by Robert Macfarlane

Robert Macfarlane is the best-selling, award-winning author of books about the intersections of the human and the natural realms. In “Underland,” he delivers his masterpiece: an epic exploration of the Earth’s underworlds as they exist in myth, literature, memory, and the land itself.

In this highly anticipated sequel to his international bestseller “The Old Ways,” Macfarlane takes readers on an extraordinary journey into humans’ relationship with darkness, burial and what lies beneath the surface of both place and mind.

Traveling through “deep time” — the dizzying expanses of geologic time that stretch away from the present — he moves from the birth of the universe to a post-human future, from the prehistoric art of Norwegian sea caves to the blue depths of the Greenland ice cap, from Bronze Age funeral chambers to the catacomb labyrinth below Paris, and from the underground fungal networks through which trees communicate to a deep-sunk “hiding place” where nuclear waste will be stored for 100,000 years to come.

Woven through Macfarlane’s own travels are the unforgettable stories of descendants into the underland made across history by explorers, artists, cavers, diver, mourners, dreamers and murderers, all of whom have been drawn for different reasons to seek what Cormac McCarthy calls “the awful darkness within the world.”

Global in its geography and written with great lyricism and power, “Underland” speaks powerfully to our present moment. At once ancient and urgent, this is a book that will change the way you see the world.

Celebrate Woody Guthrie’s Birthday

Join Adam Miller this Sunday, July 14, at 2 p.m., when he presents “The Life and Songs of Woody Guthrie.” In honor of Guthrie’s birthday that day, the Friends of the Library will be providing birthday cake.

Since 1995, legendary folksinger, storyteller and autoharp virtuoso Adam Miller, a resident of Drain, Ore., has performed live in over 2,000 American libraries in 48 states. One of the premier auto harpists in the world, he has distinguished himself as a master of non-fiction storytelling and as one of the great interpreters of American folksongs. He is an award-winning entertainer who never fails to get his audience singing along and is that rare performer who appeals to audiences of all ages.

Apollo 11 Moon Landing Anniversary

On Saturday, July 20, at 1 p.m., Jeff Phillips from the Eugene Astronomical Society will be at the library discussing the Apollo 11 moon landing, which occurred exactly 50 years ago that day.

“My father was an engineer who worked on the Jupiter C, the rocket that launched America’s first satellite, the Explorer 1, and America’s first astronaut Alan Shepard,” Phillips said. “As a boy, I would sneak a transistor radio into school so I could listen to space launches.”

One of those launches resulted in a moon landing on July 20, 1969, with Neil Armstrong setting foot outside hours later. Phillips will discuss the moon landing and show some clips from the movie “Apollo 11.”

The Friends of the Library will be providing refreshments.

Pioneer Museum hosts Historic Cemeteries event on July 18

Join the Oregon Commission on Historic Cemeteries (OCHC) in Florence on Thursday, July 18, for a public meeting and presentation. All events are free and will take place at the Siuslaw Pioneer Museum, 278 Maple St. in Florence.

The OCHC will kick off the schedule with its quarterly meeting from 2 to 4:30 p.m. The agenda includes 2018 grant report, commissioner reports, and future meetings. Interested parties may attend in person or call-in to the meeting. Meetings are accessible to people with disabilities. Special accommodations and translation may be arranged up to 72 hours in advance of the meeting by calling 503-986-0690.

A presentation will follow the meeting from 6 to 7 p.m. Charlotte Lehan of Wilsonville, and Bev Power of Medford, both commissioners with OCHC, will present “Adventures in Mapping Historic Cemeteries.” They will present challenges, surprise discoveries and other issues in mapping and documenting historic cemeteries.

OCHC maintains a list of all historic cemeteries in the state. A cemetery must include the burial of at least one person who died before Feb. 14, 1909, to qualify as historic. The seven-member appointed commission helps people and organizations document, preserve and promote designated historic cemeteries statewide.

For more information about the grant program or the OCHC, visit www.oregonheritage.org or contact Kuri Gill at Kuri.gill@oregon.gov or 503-986-0685.
