HOSA joins Lane Blood Works for blood drive

Siuslaw High School's HOSA Chapter is working with Lane Blood Works to host a community blood drive on Wednesday, Aug. 14. The event will take place at Siuslaw High School, 2975 Oak St., from 7:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. on the second day of high school student registration. All blood donated stays in Lane County. There is no need for scheduling, so people will be able to come in for walk-in appointments. Lane Blood Bank will give the Siuslaw HOSA chapter $500 for every 25 people who donate. Hannah Waller, treasurer for Siuslaw HOSA, said the money from the event goes to registration for competitions, equipment needed by the chapter and travel fare for the students. HOSA Future Health Professionals is a student organization that seeks to empower students to become leaders in the global health community through education, collaboration and experience. First, guests to the museum will find weavers working on the antique loom in the sewing room on the upper level almost any Saturday. Pay admission to come and watch this amazing process.

Secondly, there is a historic family Bible exhibit in the display case in the reception area of the museum. Some of the Bibles date from the early 1800s. These can also be viewed with regular admission.

At the end of the month, Jesse Beers, Cultural Director for the Confederated Tribes of the Coos, Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians, will be the August StoryTime presenter. This event happens Friday, Aug. 30, at 7 p.m.

The next day, Saturday, Aug. 31, the annual Pioneer Picnic will take place at the Florence Elks campground at noon. As always, volunteers are needed, especially as museum greeters and to tune up acting skills with the Heritage Players.

Siuslaw Pioneer Museum, 278 Maple St., offers several events this month, as well as a guide to the Historic Walking Tour through Historic Old Town Florence.

ple St. in Historic Old Town Florence in an old school building from 1905. It is the home of historic displays, pictures and other information about the Siuslaw River area, including The Pioneers and the City of Florence.

City, county to stripe Florence streets this week

Florence Public Works announced that striping of city streets will begin Thursday, Aug. 15, and conclude on Friday, Aug. 16, weather permitting.

The City of Florence maintains 79.2 lane miles of roadway with approximately 39.5 of those center lane miles. Under a co-operative contract with the City of Florence, Lane County crews will begin striping city streets on Thursday, weather permitting. Crews can only stripe when the road is dry and the temperature is above 50 degrees.

Next to traffic control device maintenance, striping is a top safety priority.

Drivers, cyclists and pedestrians are asked to remember to give striping crews plenty of room and watch for the orange traffic cones on Florence streets, as well as "wet paint" signs on the vehicles in front or behind the striper.

Although crews will use fast-drying, water-based paint, driving over fresh stripes or changing lanes when following a striping crew can remove the reflectivity of the stripe, reduce safety, increase maintenance costs and spray paint onto your vehicle.

The City of Florence does not assume responsibility for paint on vehicles. The paint used in the striping process is engineered to last, so it may be very difficult to remove from your vehicle if you drive on it while it's wet. Once crews spray the paint on the roadway, it can take as little as 30 seconds or as long as five minutes to dry. If a driver does happen to drive over wet paint, it should be removed within the hour by a high-pressure hose and using warm soapy water.

The city and county will deny all reimbursement claims if a driver crosses over wet paint.

In order to be prepared for the striping, watch for orange traffic cones, warning signs and warning trucks. Don't change lanes behind a striping truck and do not drive on the yellow or white lines.

The paint is water based, which is better for the environment, and as the paint is applied thousands of little glass beads are deposited upon the wet paint. The glass beads reflect lots of light even at night. When vehicle headlights hit the paint, tiny spheres in the glass beads reflect the light, making the stripes brighter for drivers in dark or rainy conditions.

For more details about street striping operations, call City of Florence Public Works at 541-997-4106 or visit ci.florence.or.us.

Library hosts Cultural Coalition Grant Writing Workshop tomorrow

Coming up on Thursday, Aug. 15, at 10:30 a.m., the Siuslaw Public Library District will be hosting a 90-minute workshop for anyone interested in writing a grant for the Lane County Cultural Coalition's (LCCC) current round of Cultural Opportunity Grants. The workshop will be held in the Bromley

Room at the main branch of the Siuslaw Public library, 1460 Ninth St. in Florence.

This free grant writing session will be led by Meg Spencer, Siuslaw Public Library Director and LCCC board member, and is perfect for both first-time grant writers and anyone interested in learning more about LCCC and their granting process.

The LCCC offers Cultural Opportunity Grants to provide county recognition and support to significant cultural programs and projects, preserving and enhancing Lane County's diverse arts, heritage, and humanities efforts.

Cultural Opportunity Grants are available to for-profit and nonprofit organizations, as well as individuals, to support access, awareness, and education for programs and projects related to arts, heritage and humanities.

Grant amounts range from $500 to $2,500.

Spencer has served on the LCCC board for a number of years and is enthusiastic about the opportunities afforded by the group to improve cultural access, education, and awareness to Lane County residents and, in particular, Western Lane County residents.

In last year's funding cycle, more than $45,000 in grants was awarded by LCCC to support 21 cultural programs or projects across Lane County.

If unable to attend the workshop, the public is still welcome to complete an application for an LCCC Cultural Opportunity Grant.

For more information about this or other workshops in Lane County, grant applications, and grant guidelines, visit the LCCC website at www.laneculture.net or contact Spencer at 541-997-3132.
