

Kids can learn kitchen basics in 3-day camp

The Mustard Seed is holding a Kid's Kitchen Basics Course for incoming second- through sixth-graders for three sessions on Tuesday to Thursday, Aug. 20, 21 and 22, from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. each day.

The cost is $60 for all three days.

The course will include how to make pancakes, pasta, bread and more.

The Mustard Seed, a crafting and community space at 509 Kingwood St. in Florence, has actively included children's activities since it opened this year.

Each day, the kid chefs will get to eat what they make and take home what they learn, including recipes.

Taught by Florence native Aric Sneddon, this is a great mini-camp to end the summer.

Visit The Mustard Seed, 509 Kingwood St. in Florence, to reserve spots or register online at www.tms1720.com.

For any questions, call The Mustard Seed at 541-991-3888.

Florence North Liquors holds grand opening on Aug. 23

Florence North Liquors has officially opened at Twin Lakes Store. This new store-in-a-store concept is now being permitted by the Oregon Liquor Control Commission (OLCC). This type of marketing plan is beneficial for the community it serves.

The liquor store has been open for two months and is ready for a grand opening on Friday, Aug. 23, from 3 to 7 p.m. The public is invited to come see the addition, all the changes, and celebrate the opening of Florence's newest Liquor store.

There will be spirit tastings, give-a-ways and a lot of activities planned throughout the day. In addition, local artists will also be displaying their unique goods, including books and metal art.

"I'm excited to show the new store off to the community," said Vicki Ambrosio, the owner of Twin Lakes Store and the new liquor store inside. "I've worked really hard and it is so nice to see the fruits of my labor."

Twin Lakes Store has a long history in the area.

While its founding date still alludes the owners, pictures show it was operating back before Highway 101 was paved. Now it's not such a small convenience store. While it sports a country charm and still has the small town feel, it is turning into a much larger business to the benefit of the northern part of Florence.

"It is a short drive to our store," said Ambrosio, "but our store is different from our sister store in town simply by our selection and that we have groceries. We of course carry all the usual favorites and plenty of the newest hot sellers, but we also have a big selection of Oregon Distilled Spirits. It is amazing how many distilleries are in Oregon. Our selection continues to evolve as special requests are coming in. It seems like we have a few people who appreciate a good Scotch, so we keep adding to our impressive line.

"My main goal is to supply my community and the travelers with their needs," Ambrosio continued. "If I can keep them from driving into town to a bigger store, I will be successful and the community will be happy. It's a win, win situation."

For more information on Twin Lakes Store or it's grand opening of Florence North Liquors call 541-997-3021.

FUUF to hear lesson on 'what people love' Sunday

On Sunday, Aug. 18, from 10 to 11 a.m. at the Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship, the Rev. Stephen Landale will deliver a message titled, "What We Love."

After a dozen years of UU parish ministry, Landale has now completed his seventh year as a hospice chaplain in Oregon.

He said, "Unitarian Universalists often emphasize our freedom of belief. However, UU minister and scholar Alice Blair Wesley makes a moving case that what we believe is less important than what we love, and that covenants are central to who we are."

The Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship is located at 87738 Highway 101 at Heceta Beach Road and is wheelchair accessible. Each service concludes with refreshments and a dialogue circle to explore the questions that come up during each worship service.

For more information, visit www.florenceuuf.org.
