

FUUF to hear about 'messy transformations' Sunday

Elaine Cornick, founder of the Cultural Butterfly Project, www.cultural-butterflyproject.com, will be speaking at the Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship on Sunday, Sept. 22, from 10 until 11 a.m. Her message's title is, "We're in a Messy Transformation — and That's the Good News!"

Cornick is a catalyst who inspires new perspectives and possibilities for the ways we live and work.

She launched the Cultural Butterfly Project as a catalyst for a culture of connectedness and the well-being of all. She has continually explored and practiced numerous leading-edge approaches to shifting paradigms and creating our reality, because she knows that the real journey of transformation is to connect with our inner powers as creators and bring a new world into being from the inside out.

Cornick's bachelor's degree in psychology, master's degree in social work and master's degree in management have been the foundation for her work experience in coaching and counseling, facilitation, program development and coordination, community relations and sales and marketing.

Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship is at 87738 Highway 101 at Heceta Beach Road and is wheelchair accessible. Each service concludes with refreshments and a dialogue circle to explore the questions that come up during each worship service.

Boys & Girls Club holds pie fundraiser

The Boys and Girls Club of Western Lane County students are going back to school and that means it's time for them to take holiday pre-orders for the club's holiday pie fundraiser. Each and every pie sold helps support much-needed resources for after-school programs.

As a youth development organization, Boys and Girls Club members are engaged and learning real-life skills — employment, balancing a checkbook, savings, getting ready for college and learning to make quality lifestyle decisions. With so many distractions in modern life, including social media, peer pressure, challenges at home and working parents, the Boys & Girls Club provides a safe, caring and quality atmosphere after school for kids to flourish, gain self-respect and learn self-reliance.

Now in its third year, the Boys and Girls Club holiday pie fundraiser has become very popular with the community, especially the mini-pie variety packs, which are only available during the fundraiser. The handmade pies are provided by Willamette Valley Pie Company in Salem. The pies use non-GMO ingredients, contain less sugar and the crusts are trans-fat free.

From freezer to oven, some of the favorite flavors include American apple, cherry crunch, marionberry, raspberry/rhubarb, caramel apple and peach-raspberry streusel. Cobblers and quick-frozen fruit were offered last year and will be available once more.

"I am absolutely blown away by how many pies our kids sell," said Boys and Girls Club Executive Director Chuck Trent. "The winners of the challenge who sell the most pies get to pick who gets a pie in the face, and 99.9 percent of the time, it's a staff member. It's priceless."

Florence-area residents who know of someone who has a child or teen enrolled at the Boys & Girls Club, let them know you would like to support the club and pre-order your holiday pie.

In addition, the club is taking orders by phone at 541-902-0304. Pre-orders will be taken until Monday, Sept. 30, and product pick up will be on Monday, Oct. 21, from 3 to 7 p.m. at the Florence Events Center, 715 Quince St.

Nancy Pearson, the club's "Pie Lady," said, "Last year we had quite a number of folks who forgot to pick up their orders, so this year we will contact them a few days prior to remind them."

For more information about pre-ordering, product information, etc., contact Pearson at 541-350-4852 or email nancy@nancypear.com.

Katzenjammer Trio plays jazz on Oct. 5

On Saturday, Oct. 5, the Katzenjammer Trio will bring jazz music to Florence with a show held at the Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship at 87738 Highway 101. Doors open at 7 p.m.

The Katzenjammer Trio plays traditional jazz standards with an emphasis on freestyle interpretation. Doc Pinnock plays banjo and guitar, Lou Invernon doubles on tenor sax, flute and clarinet, and Richard Jones plays mostly clarinet.

Pinnock and Invernon have extensive professional experience with numerous jazz groups, whereas Jones' background is more classically oriented, although he has played with dance bands for many years.

The trio's main goal is just to have good fun playing. Those who listen pick up on this mood and find themselves doing a lot of toe tapping and moving to the rhythms.

Tea and coffee will be provided. Guests over 21 can bring their own adult beverages, and people are encouraged to bring healthy finger food snacks to share.

There is no cost, but donations for the artists are encouraged.

Property owners invited to make switch to electronic tax statements

Lane County property owners now have the option to receive electronic property tax statements via email rather than paper copies. To opt into electronic statements, visit www.lanecounty.org/at.

"Taxpayers have been requesting electronic statements and providing the option helps us be more efficient and will save on the cost to print and mail statements each year," said Assessor Mike Cowles. "Just like adding the option to pay property taxes online, we hope this improves accessibility and convenience for our residents while decreasing our carbon footprint and reducing excess paperwork." The deadline to opt into electronic statements for the current tax year is September 30. If property owners opt in after that date, they may receive both paper and electronic copies this fall before receiving only electronic statements next year.

The 2019-20 property tax statements are planned to be online on October 14 and statements are anticipated to be mailed on Oct. 18.

Please note: opting in to electronic property tax statements will not affect the process through which mortgage companies pay property tax on behalf of a property owner.
