

Ribbon cutting Fairway Estates

COURTESY PHOTO

Nancy and Michael Pearson, owners of Fairway Estates, were joined by Florence Mayor Joe Henry, City Manager Erin Reynolds and other local dignitaries and Chamber Ambassadors during a special ribbon cutting ceremony on Wednesday at the entrance to Fairway Estates, located just north of 35th Street on Rhododendron Drive. The event also included a special preview open house for builders and brokers at the Florence Golf Links Clubhouse later that evening, along with live music, food, beverages and prizes.

Peace Harbor annual ‘Light Up a Life’ is Nov. 9

November is National Hospice and Palliative Care Month. PeaceHealth Peace Harbor Medical Center is preparing for its 24th annual Light Up A Life ceremony, which raises funds for these vital services.

The date of this year’s ceremony is Saturday, Nov. 9, a month earlier than usual to not interfere with the busy holiday season.

The ceremony will be held from 2 to 3:30 p.m. at the Florence Events Center.

The Light Up A Life ceremony offers an opportunity to remember and recognize family members and friends who have died — regardless of when, or whether, the individual was a Hospice patient.

Stars, including Stars of David, will honor the loved one, or simply recognize someone who has made a difference in a person’s life.

The loved one’s name will appear on the star, which is then placed on a tree. Recognition is also given during the “reading of the names” segment of the ceremony.

Families are also invited to submit photographs of loved ones, to be included in a memorial slide presentation.

Admission to the event is free, and all are welcome to celebrate the lives of loved ones. Donations can be made online at peacehealth.org/LUAL-Florence, or mailed to Peace Harbor Hospice at 400 Ninth St., Florence, Ore, 97439. They can also be dropped off in person at 2230 Kingwood St. Be sure to include the name of your loved one.

Submissions sought for annual veterans publication

The Siuslaw News is preparing to publish its annual Veterans Day publication, which is a special supplement that is devoted to all military veterans who currently are Florence-area residents or have a connection to this area. It will be in the Saturday, Nov. 9, edition, in advance of Veterans Day on Nov. 11.

Anyone interested in sharing their military background information in the annual tribute publication, or in updating information published previously, should complete the form and submit it to the Siuslaw News.

Service photographs are also welcome.

Submit forms and photos by email to mberg@the-siuslawnews.com; by regular mail to Siuslaw News, Attn: Misty Berg, P.O. Box 10, Florence, OR 97439; or drop off materials at the Siuslaw News office in Old Town at 148 Maple St.

If your profile was published previously in the Veterans tribute and you do not wish to make any changes to the profile, there is no need to resubmit this form or your military information.

Be sure all submitted materials are clearly labeled with name and phone number by Monday, Oct. 28.

Local photograher Jerry Schneider featured at OPB

Florence Regional Arts Alliance (FRAA) is presenting the photography of Jerry Schneider during the month of October in the lobby of Oregon Pacific Bank.

Schneider is a versatile, visual arts professional with over 40 years of photographic and video-related experience.

“My expertise in traditional and digital still photography was honed at WDI — Walt Disney Imagineering throughout 18 years for a multitude of projects,” said Schneider.

Additionally, Paul Getty Museum featured his talents and experience in the design, creation and administration of the museum’s digital printing lab.

Schneider also worked at the project management level for the Eastman Kodak Company, where he oversaw the design and in installation of theme park imaging projects.

Schneider received his Vocational Teaching credential from the University of San Diego, and he spent nine years teaching Photoshop at John Burroughs High School in Burbank, Calif.

He is currently retired and living in Florence with his wife, Stephanie, and volunteers his time on the Siuslaw Library Arts Committee, FRAA, as well as hosting a local Featured Artist radio show on KXCR.
