The glass float hunt is from Friday through Sunday afternoon. Passport tickets are $5 each and include the glass float and chowder competition (they are on sale at the Visitors Center 290 Hwy on Friday then down in Gazebo Park Saturday and Sunday). Participants take their passport to the different float locations, when they find the float they show their passport to the staff and receive a raffle ticket and their passport gets checked off. On Sunday all the raffle tickets are combined and then tickets are pulled for the 40 floats that are given away.

The Wine Trail is Saturday, October 12, from noon to 5:00 p.m. Participants can purchase a commemorative wine glass ($5) and tasting tickets ($1 each) at Gazebo Park at the corner of Bay St. and Laurel St., then stroll scenic Bay Street and surrounding area to sample wines from some of Oregon's best wineries (21 and over only).

The Chowder Trail is Sunday, October 13, from noon to 4:00 p.m. Chowder contestants will include about a dozen leading restaurants from around Florence. Those without an Old Town storefront will set up at Gazebo Park or in the shops and galleries along Bay St. A passport with the chowder tasting locations and ballot, and map of the glass float locations, is $5.
