OBITUARIES

CHAMBERLEN—Fredrick Lewis Chamberlen, 81, formerly of Florence, passed away Sept. 19, 2019, in Visalia, Calif., surrounded by loved ones.

Fred was born in Lindsay, Calif., on Nov. 21, 1937. He attended Porterville and Ducor schools, graduating from PUHS in 1955. After attending El Camino College, he joined the U.S.

Navy. He went on to work for Standard Oil in Taft and Southern California. He then moved to Santa Rosa and Sonoma, working for Barkley Pumps.

After retiring, he worked for his wife's family business in Sonoma. They moved to Florence, Ore., and lived in what he called his "paradise" home on a lake. When his beloved wife Gail (Farrell) died, he moved back to Visalia to be near family. He loved his new neighborhood and they returned the love. He loved all the kids and their parents equally.

Fred and Gail loved traveling. He was a lover of golf, nature, fishing and hunting. He always had an exquisitely organized workshop. Fred was also a true Seahawks fan. He loved helping others.

Fred is preceded in death by his parents, Lewis and Jean Chamberlen; his mother Mildred; and his sister Norma Kaiser.

Fred is survived by his son Richard and his wife, Rhonda, and their children: Dylan and Camille; his daughter Debbie and her husband, Chris; his brother Gary Kaiser and his wife, Judi; a sister, Nancy Granillo, and her husband Miguel; and many nephews, nieces and great-nephews and great-nieces who loved Uncle Fred very much.

He wished that there be no service. If you would like to honor him, do a kind deed and think of him.

CLAVEL—On Tuesday Oct. 8, 2019, Edmund (Ed) Clavel, 91, loving husband of Diane, passed away.

Ed was born in New York city on April 28, 1928, to Ramon and Mary Clavel, who immigrated from Spain and Puerto Rico. He served in the merchant marines and two branches of the military, the Marines and the Air Force. He worked for Pan Am and United airlines as a mechanic and later as an engineer for Lockheed Aerospace, from which he retired.

Ed was passionate about life. He loved flying his Aercoupe over the skies of Florence, riding his motorcycle with his buddies to buy a hamburger or just walking briskly through his neighborhood. He was not afraid to try anything new whether it be a new exotic food or a crazy sport like hang gliding. He was an inspiration to friends and family.

Ed is survived by his wife of 68 years, Diane Clavel; his daughter and son-in-law, Mary and Dan Schlenger; and his son and daughter-in-law, Eddie and Diana Clavel.

He is also survived by his six grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

He leaves a legacy of a loving and caring family who will miss him greatly.

A memorial service will be held at the Elks Lodge in Florence, Ore., on Saturday, Oct. 19, at 2 p.m.

Larry was born Feb. 6, 1934, in Frontenac, Kan., to Stanley and Elizabeth Korosec.

After traveling across the country to California as a representative for Proctor and Gamble, he met, wooed and married Virginia Toon, the love of his life, on Dec. 12, 1952, in Tracy, Calif.

Larry later received an Associate in Science degree from the University of the State of New York, and spent 40 years devoted to public service working for the State of California, primarily in Sacramento.

His family remembers him for his lifelong curiosity, his love of learning, his rapier wit and his passion for the theater, including his talents as a playwright, director, actor, singer and musician.

A brief graveside service is scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 16, at 2 p.m., at Pacific Sunset Cemetery on Highway 126 in Florence, Ore.

Pastor Rachel Simonson of the New Life Lutheran Church will officiate.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to the American Cancer Society, 2350 Oakmont Way Suite 200, Eugene, Ore., 97401.
