See you on the sand!

In 2011, artist Denny Dyke created Circles in the Sand as a special project of his labyrinth ministry. By 2015, he decided to create a public schedule for these wondrous walking paths. Transformation to becoming an artist was never even a thought when he started walking in circles in the sand dragging a stick.

"Change is the one constant in life," Dyke said.

Driftwood Shores Resort and Conference Center, along with Sand Master Park, will host the second annual Circles in the Sand Labyrinth in Florence today, Oct. 12, from 3 to 7 p.m.

On Heceta Beach near Driftwood Shores, Dyke will carve a giant labyrinth on the beach beginning at 3 p.m., with completion expected at 5 in time for a sunset walk through the drawing.
