OBITUARIES

KELLY—Sharon L. Kelly, 76, formerly of Florence, passed away Oct. 18, 2019, in Albany, Ore., where she had resided for the past 15 years.

Sharon was born Dec. 25, 1942, in Portland, Ore., to William and Lavira Fandrey. The family moved to Eugene, Ore., when she was a young child. Sharon then graduated from South Eugene High School in 1961. She went on to graduate from the Eugene Technical-Vocational School in 1963 with a degree in practical nursing.

Sharon married Ramon (Monty) Deardorff on Feb. 15, 1964, and the couple was married for 35 years. In 1977, they moved to Florence, Ore., where the two co-owned Siuslaw Automotive & Towing until 1999.

She enjoyed caring for the family horses with her daughters as well as helping others. Sharon was a member of PeaceHealth Hospital Auxiliary as well as the Florence Police Department Auxiliary.

Sharon graduated from the Police Reserve Academy on June 13, 1996. She became a reserve police officer for the Florence Police Department, where she stayed until her retirement.

Sharon is survived by her three daughters: Laurie (Rob) Morton, Debbie (Ron) Beatty and Kim (Steve) Davis; six grandchildren: Justin (Gretchen) Morgan, Aaron Morgan, Brad Davis, Myranda Davis, Stephen Davis Jr., and Brigett (Ethan) Jones; and five great-grandchildren: Grant, Brett, Devyn, Levi and Maverick.

At her request, no formal services will be held.

AAsum-Dufour Funeral Home is handling the arrangements (www.aasumdufour.com).

MEDLOCK—Kurt J. Medlock, 75, peacefully joined so many other loving relatives and friends before him on Oct. 22, 2019.

Kurt was born in Ogden, Utah, to Lois Hannah Medlock (Chugg) and Kenneth Medlock.

He lived a full and happy life. This included being a communication specialist in the U.S. Army after joining at age 17. He was discharged in 1966 in Colorado after being stationed in Fort Louis, Wash., and South Korea. After moving from Colorado to California and taking a job in the trucking industry, his father-in-law in Oregon invited him to explore the prospects of the beautiful landscapes and logging industries of Florence, Ore.

He quickly fell in love with the natural beauty and peaceful surroundings.

Kurt's first job opportunity was in 1978 at International Paper in Gardiner, Ore.. The job quickly blossomed into a career, working there until its closure in 1992.

He wanted to fulfill his desire to help others' needs and the community he dearly cared for. So, he pulled off his boots and traded them for sneakers to attend Lane Community College in Eugene; driving everyday for two years to graduate with his RV Technicians Degree.

Kurt was a fighter. He stunned his doctors and showed he had "nine lives" by beating stage-four cancer at the age of 49 and then any ailment that dared to tangle with him.

Kurt never knew a stranger and was always ready and willing to help anyone. A longtime Florence resident, Kurt was known as the "Honey-DO Man," doing handyman jobs.

It may surprise some to learn that Kurt was a lifelong Mormon. His dedication to family and friends was like none other.

Kurt is survived by his sisters: Alexis Swearingen of Missouri and Pat Overton of California; and their children; his daughter, Rebecca J. Rodet and her two daughters, Courtney P. and Hannah J. Rodet.

He will be greatly missed by his family and his beloved soulmate of 15 years, Betty Smith.

Please come join us to celebrate his life with his family on Friday, Nov. 1, at 4 p.m., at the LDS Church (2705 Munsel Lake Road).

There will be a private military honors ceremony with inturment at Roseburg National Cemetery at a later date.

Kurt Medlock

Anniversary

Come join family and friends to celebrate Dan and Vivian Stinger's 70th wedding anniversary on Saturday, Nov. 2. The celebration will be at the West Woahink Meeting Hall, from noon to 4 p.m. No gifts please, and snacks will be provided. We will also be celebrating Dan's 90th birthday!
