His Dark Materials

Monday at 9 p.m. on HBO Philip Pullman's epic fantasy comes to the small screen as a new limited series, a U.S.-British co-production set in a world wherein every human being has an animal called a daemon, a manifestation of the soul that is, in some respects, similar to the patronus in the "Harry Potter" stories. Young actress Dafne Keen stars as Lyra, an orphan who has grown up at Jordan College, Oxford, England and serves as the protagonist of the fantasy. Ruth Williams, James McAvoy and Lin-Manuel Miranda also star.

Running Wild With Bear Grylls

Tuesday at 7 p.m., 9:01 p.m. on NGE0 Playing Captain Marvel in mega-budget movie blockbusters, Brie Larson gives the impression that she's nearly all-powerful, but how does the actress fare when the special-effects team is nowhere around? Larson joins host Bear Grylls in the Pearl Islands of Panama for his Season 5 premiere, and during their time together, she learns how to handle a machete, jumps from a helicopter into waters below and, most harrowingly, crosses a crocodile-infested mangrove swamp.
