

United States Marines celebrate 244th birthday

In honor of all local Marines and Navy Corpsmen attached to a Marine unit, a 244th birthday dinner celebration will be held at the local Elks Lodge, complete with the traditional birthday cake and Commandant's Message on Sunday, Nov. 10.

A no-host cocktail hour will be held from 5-6 p.m. with a selection of dinner menu being served from 6-7 p.m. Thereafter, the Commandant's message will be read, concluding with the traditional cake cutting ceremony.

All Marines and guests are invited to attend but are requested to inform this year's host and hostess of their intent to attend, and which menu they prefer.

Call Rick Shores at 541-991-3256 anytime by Nov. 6. Cost per person is $15-$22, depending on menu selection.

City Club seeks way forward

The Florence City Club meeting on Thursday, Nov. 7, features guest speaker Camp Florence Director Pete Roberts and one of his residents, Frankie. Florence City Club meets from noon to 1 p.m. at Ocean Dunes Golf Links. Meetings are open to the public and lunch is available for purchase.

Camp Florence is a correctional facility for young men. It has long been an established presence providing the area with willing workers who have participated in everything from construction and landscaping to helping the Soroptimists fill Christmas baskets every year.

Following the program, there will be a brief meeting of the membership to determine a way forward if the City Club is to remain a viable organization. This year it has operated only with an interim acting steering committee.

For further info, call Annie Schmidt at 541-997-1023.

YACHATS ARTS FESTIVAL

The 22nd annual Harvest and Holidays Arts and Crafts Festival was held last Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Yachats Commons.

The festival featured hundreds of visitors streaming through the Yachats Commons, stopping at craft booths offering all types of handcrafted items, food products, jewelry and many other artisan crafts.

Award winning art and photography were on display and there were master craftsmen working in metal, wood and ceramics on site to discuss their work.

There was also a wide array of specialty items like soap, dog treats, wood crafts, fiber art and metal sculpture available and local honey and other baked

Florence prepares for Veterans Day Parade

Each Nov. 11 is observed in America to acknowledge the sacrifices made by those currently serving and those who have served to keep this country free. This Veteran's Day, the nation will again be reminded of the tremendous sacrifices endured to ensure America's freedom.

Honor the service and sacrifice of all active-duty and military veterans at the 13th annual Veterans Day Parade on Monday, Nov. 11, at 2 p.m. in Historic Old Town Florence. This year's parade Grand Marshals are veterans from World War II.

The parade assembles near the Florence Events Center on Quince Street and continues to Bay Street before ending at the Veteran's Memorial Park, where the Florence-Siuslaw Lions Club will be serving free hot dogs.

from local bands, floats, marching groups, elected officials and many others will pay tribute to all veterans during the parade, including the Siuslaw Marching Band, an Honor Guard, Boy and Girl Scouts, U.S. Coast Guard Station Siuslaw River, emergency responders and patriotic groups.

The community is invited to attend the Veterans Day Parade in Florence and salute those who protect this country. Show your red, white and blue spirit by waving flags along the parade route. All are welcome.
