

Annual Celtic Music Festival this weekend in Yachats

The Yachats Celtic Music Festival is presenting seven different bands, five different workshops, whisky tasting and much more.

The dates for the 19th annual event are Friday to Sunday, Nov. 8, 9 and 10. Free and ticketed concerts, workshops, jamming, dancing and whisky tasting take place all weekend in various venues around town.

The festival is continuing the popular daytime "pub style" format at the Yachats Commons, 441 Highway 101 in Yachats. The doors open Friday at noon with free entertainment in the Commons.

Celtic inspired food and beverages will be available in the Commons during the festivities. The village embraces the festival and many Yachats shops and restaurants display their Celtic enthusiasm during the weekend.

Experience the magic of watching the sunset at the edge of the earth while listening to Kevin Carr, this years "Piper on the Point."

Learn to play the harp at the "Hands on Harps" workshops. Harps provided!

Sign up for the limited seating whiskey tasting tour and try six different single malt Scotch and Irish Whiskies. The Single Malt Whisky Tasting is led by John Robbins.

Workshop leaders are Lisa Lynne, Maldon Meehan, and Rob Gandara.

New this year is a special Sunday concert, featuring Cassie and Maggie MacDonald and Vishten. This concert will follow the always popular free Sunday Ceili dance workshop and community dance.

Performers will include Nuala Kennedy & Eamon O'Leary, Kevin Carr, Vishten. Gillian Boucher & Bob McNeill, Cassie and Maggie MacDonald, Beólach and Lisa Lynne and Aryeh Frankfurter.

The Sunday Ceili dance instructor and caller is Elisa Chandler.

Dancing, storytelling, workshops, jam sessions, vendors, whisky tasting and lots of fun awaits you, with additional
