News about the
Siuslaw Public Library

Library Tidings, a regular feature of the Siuslaw News written by Kevin Mittge, features news about upcoming Siuslaw Public Library programs for adults and children, new books and videos, and other news of interest to the community.

Book Review
"Live A Little"
by Howard Jacobson

At the age of 90-something, Beryl Dusingery is forgetting everything — including her own children. Her tongue, meanwhile, remains as sharp as ever. She spends her days stitching macabre messages into her needlework and tormenting her two long-suffering caregivers with tangled stories of her love affairs.

Shimi Carmelli can do up his own buttons, get around without the aid of a walker, and speak without spitting. Among the widows of North London, he's whispered about as the last of the eligible bachelors. Unlike Beryl, he forgets nothing — especially not the shame of a childhood incident that has hung over him ever since.

There's very little life remaining for either of them, but perhaps just enough to heal some of the hurt inflicted along the way and find new meaning in what's left. Could this be their chance to live a little?

Told with Howard Jacobson's trademark wit and style, "Live A Little" is equal parts funny, irreverent and tender — a novel to make you consider all the paths not taken, and whether you could still change course.

Texas Gypsies:
Preview Concert Today!

The Texas Gypsies will perform in a preview concert at the library today at 1 p.m.

The group performs vintage jazzy swing with sounds of the roaring 1920s and the Great Gatsby era, along with big band swing, western swing, and more. The main concert will be that evening at the Florence Events Center; check out www.event-center.org for more information and to purchase tickets for the evening concert.

This special educational preview is made possible by SEACoast Entertainment Association.

New Materials

The library has several "new" materials shelves. We separate out new adult fiction and nonfiction, new large print, new dvds, new audiobooks, new young adult, and new juvenile fiction.

The length of time items stay on the new shelves depend on various factors, including shelf space to move them off the new shelf as well as the need to make room for more new items. A six or nine month stay on any "new" shelf is about average.

Keep in mind that not all "new" items will be on the new shelf. We try to select the most popular and most diverse new titles for your browsing pleasure.

Hang-It All!

Stop by the library during the month of November and view the works of art submitted by local artists and craftspeople. Be sure to cast your vote (once per day) for your favorite work of art for the People's Choice Award.

Mapleton Branch

The Mapleton library is located at 88148 Riverview Ave., in the Lion's Club Building. With a nice view of the Siuslaw River, it's a wonderful place to sit and enjoy a good book or read the newspaper. The library also has books, magazines, DVDs and videos, recorded books, Internet computers, wireless Internet access and more. Hours are Tuesday through Saturday, noon to 5 p.m.

Community Chorus announces Christmas Concert Dec. 14

On Saturday, Dec. 14, at 7 p.m., and Sunday, Dec. 15, at 2 p.m., the Community Chorus of Florence Oregon will present its annual Christmas Concert at the Presbyterian Church of the Siuslaw, 3996 Highway 101 in Florence.

The chorus will present both traditional and non-traditional Christmas music. A special performance by the Flo Tones and a harp solo by Sylvia Hartman will be extra special treats.

This free concert is open to the public. Donations will be accepted to support an annual award to the Siuslaw High School vocal art program and for the support of the Community Chorus.

For more info, call 541-999-7575 or visit www.communitychorusflorence.org.

Friendship Club hosts card party
