

Lane Community College Florence Center

Nestled along "Education Row" in one of the most beautiful and livable cities on the planet, you'll find the Lane Community College Florence Center.

The Florence Center has a remarkable history of serving the needs of those who live, work, study and play in Western Lane County. It is a place where you can achieve your goals and reach your dreams, whatever they may be.

At LCC Florence, 3149 Oak St., you can meet all the academic requirements to attain an Associate of Arts Oregon Transfer degree that will unlock the door to future educational opportunities across Oregon's four-year university system. You can also accomplish any of a number of two-year associate degrees.

The center also offers classes that can lead to a multitude of one- and two-year certificates that can unlock the door to a new career or a key advancement in a specific field.

At LCC Florence, students are sure to find an approach to learning that works best for you, with live lecture classes, online, video and hybrid courses.

In addition, LCC Florence is all about life-long learning.

For those interested in community education or personal or professional development, you'll find an amazing array of offerings at the Florence Center. From health and wellness, arts and recreation, the latest in technology and community-oriented classes, you're sure to find classes you will enjoy. Plus, LCC's Outward Ventures program has become renowned for fabulous day trips with marvelous and interesting people, integrating lectures with planned activities and delightful outings.

US TOO

Us TOO Florence is one of more than 300 nonprofit 501(c)3 chapters of Us TOO International. Since 2004, Us TOO Florence has been helping men, their families and caregivers make informed decisions about prostate cancer detection, treatment options and related side effects through person-to-person support, educational materials and the presence of a urologist at each of its twice-monthly meetings.

Come with questions — leave with answers. Talk with someone who understands.
