

Rotary names new Harris Fellows

Rotarian Presenter Rodger Bennett, Paul Harris Fellow Recipients Eric Rines and Wendy FarleyCampbell and Rotarian and Florence City Manager Erin Reynolds.

Paul Harris founded Rotary in Chicago in 1905. Later, the Rotary Foundation was created as a means to, among others, fund fighting disease. The Paul Harris Fellow recognition acknowledges individuals who contribute, or who have contributions made in their name, to the foundation.

Paul Harris Fellow recipients were either Rotarians or their spouses. Years later, Paul Harris Recognitions began being given to non-Rotarian community members in recognition for their outstanding work in the community.

This past Tuesday at the Rotary Club of Florence weekly meeting at the Florence Events Center, Rotarian Rodger Bennett, an outstanding Florence community leader in his own right, recognized Florence Planning Director Wendy FarleyCampbell and Florence Building Permit Technician Eric Rines for the exceptional and important work they have — and continue to do — in Florence.

Holiday events start next weekend

The Florence Area Chamber of Commerce and its members welcome the community to the new Cocoa, Cookie & Cider Trail on Saturday, Nov. 30 — a dozen or more delicious stops where people can indulge their desire for the best in holiday flavors.

Maps will be available starting Wednesday, Nov. 28, at the Florence Visitor's Center 290 Highway 101; Siuslaw News, 148 Maple St.; and BeauxArts Fine Art Materials and Gallery, 2285 Highway 101.

Small Business Saturday, when people are encouraged to "shop local" after Thanksgiving, the weekend also launches the Sea Lion on A Shelf trail, sponsored by Sea Lion Caves. If found, these sea lions on shelves could be worth up to $100.

Searchers of the fuzzy elf-capped pinniped can pick up a passport and map at the Florence Area Chamber of Commerce Visitor's Center. The adventure, is open Nov. 30 through Dec. 20.

For more information, visit FlorenceChamber.com or call 541-997-3128.

Chamber Orchestra plays tomorrow

The Oregon Coast Chamber Orchestra opens the 2019-20 season on Sunday, Nov. 24. There will be a selection of classical and contemporary music.

The community is invited to this special performance on Sunday Nov. 24, at 2 p.m. at the Presbyterian Church of the Siuslaw.

Tickets for adults are $10; children under 10 and students are free. Visit OCCO.org for more information.

Universalists add 'Attitude of gratitude'

Dr. Ruth Miller will lead the Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship (FUUF) service on Sunday, Nov. 24, beginning at 10 a.m. Her message, in time for Thanksgiving, will be titled: "The Power of Gratitude."

Miller is a longtime student and practitioner of this principle and will help attendees understand the power of gratitude, how it works and what can be done with that understanding.

Psychologists have long known that people who have an "attitude of gratitude" live longer, healthier lives. Now, neurologists are finding that the brain repairs itself and can be transformed by the simple expression of gratitude several times a day. And, as those who followed the Oprah Winfrey show as long ago as the 1990s discovered, when we focus on what we're thankful for, our lives begin to change.

FUUF, located at 87738 Highway 101 at Heceta Beach Road, is wheelchair accessible. Each service concludes with refreshments and a dialogue circle to explore the questions that come up during each worship service.

Siuslaw Watershed Council potluck celebration Dec. 4

Each December, the Siuslaw Watershed Council gathers with its watershed neighbors to celebrate the program's accomplishments from the last year.

The community is invited to this year's celebration and potluck on Wednesday, Dec. 4, at the Deadwood Community Center, 91792 Deadwood Creek Rd. in Deadwood.

Bring a dish to share and consider bringing a label with ingredients (gluten free, vegan, etc.)

The potluck will begin at 5:30 p.m., with the evening lasting until 8:30 p.m.

At 6:15 p.m., Executive Director Eli Tome will make a special presentation, then Siuslaw Watershed Council staff will talk about some of the major accomplishments over the last year.

At the end of evening, watershed members and supporters will be invited to an open mic to share stories from the Siuslaw, as well as art, poetry or music inspired by the watershed landscape.

For more information, visit siuslaw.org.
