Art 'on the move' in Florence

MARK BRENNAN/SIUSLAW NEWS

Staff members from Travel Oregon visited Florence for a series of meetings Monday, which included a tour of the Old Town Historic District and the Public Art installations located along Bay Street. Travel Oregon staff met at Driftwood Shores for the conference and took some time on Thursday to get outdoors to do some kayaking and hiking.

Santa coming to Elks Lodge Saturday

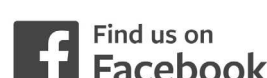

Santa Claus returns again to one of his favorite gatherings in town during the Children's Christmas Party at the Florence Elks Lodge, 1258 12th St., on Saturday, Dec. 14.

He'll be sure to see lots of happy faces there between noon and 2 p.m. The Elks' seasonal event features entertainment by CROW, who are always welcomed by the Elks, and activities for parents and youngsters.

After the musical performances, there will be a singalong with children and Elks members to help hasten Santa's arrival by firetruck.

Once settled, Santa will take time to talk to all the boys and girls in attendance. A Piñata party with splashes of candies to the victors will follow. All children and adults are welcome to enjoy one of three ice cream flavors and cookies.

During the party, there will be stuffed animals for all the kids and maybe a holiday surprise or two. For more info, call Patrick La Nasa at 541-999-4854.
