104.1 FM HOLIDAY SCHEDULE

Special Broadcast of BBC Radio's Christmas Truce: 1914

A silent unease settled over the frozen western front of France, December 1914. Soldiers from both sides laid down their arms in an unofficial truce on Christmas Eve. In a special BBC presentation, relive that moment from a World War I no man's land through the words and the songs of those who experience a Christmas Truce: 1914

RED RYDER

The ever popular Christmas tale surrounding Ralphie Parker and his quest for Red Ryder Carbine-action 200-shot Range Model Air Rifle. Author Jean Shepherd re-read this chapter from his book "In God We Trust, All Others Pay Cash" every Christmas Eve on his overnight show on WOR Radio. Relive that classic retelling through the eyes of Ralphie Parker and the voice of Jean Shepherd
