

On The Record

OBITUARIES

MARTIN—On Wednesday, Dec. 11, 2019, Charlene Carol Martin, loving and adored wife, mother and grandmother, was called to her eternal home.

Charlene was born Dec. 27, 1945, in Glendale, Calif., the daughter of Alvin and Marguerite (Robinson) Booth. On Sept. 18, 1965, she married Jim Martin in San Bernardino, Calif. Together, they owned and operated a jewelry manufacturing company while raising two daughters.

Charlene was an artist and shared her talent through her work. She and Jim moved to Florence in 2010 and opened the Silver Sand Dollar on Bay Street. They were members of Florence Christian Church, where they attended regularly.

She loved the Lord and often shared her faith with others. Even with a pancreatic cancer diagnosis in 2016, she would cheerfully tell you, "I'm walking with Jesus here and I'll be walking with Him there."

Charlene and Jim spent many years serving and making wonderful memories with this great community.

Charlene is survived by her husband Jim; daughters: Robyn (Erick) Smith of Florence, Ore., and Christie (Matthew) Anderson of Grant City, Mo.; grandchildren: Joshua Smith, Kaylee Smith, Emily Anderson and Andrew Anderson; and a brother, Raymon Booth, of Cottonwood, Calif.

A celebration of her life will be held in Florence in the spring.

TITUS—On the morning of Wednesday, Oct. 30, 2019, the fun, loving and compassionate Dianna May Titus, 77, of Redmond, Ore., formerly of Swishome, Ore., passed away.

She was born in San Francisco, Calif., on January 6, 1942, to Donald and Marguerite Stanton.

As a young woman, she married Arthur Hunt and started her family in Swishome, Ore. Her early adult life was spent working at Mapleton School District in Mapleton, Ore., where she raised her kids and met her soulmate, Lyle Titus.

Her late adult life was spent exploring the United States while trucking with Lyle before becoming a truck dispatcher for many years.

In recent years, she enjoyed fulfilling work at Best Care Rehabilitation in Redmond, helping patients better their lives.

She always loved spending time with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She enjoyed watching sports, especially golf, and was a frequent attendant at her grandchildren's extra-curricular activities.

Diana was an extremely loved and happy woman that lived a full-life until her death.

Dianna was preceded in death by her husband, Lyle Titus; her parents Donald and Marguerite Stanton; her brothers Pete and Bob Stanton; grandson Ryan Hunt; and her step-son, Andrew Hodges.

She leaves behind her sister, Sharon (Gordon) Doggett; daughter Deborah (Steve) Mace; and grandchildren: Joshua/Dawn Hole, Jessica Hole, and Andrew Mace; her son Randy (Kaye) Hunt; grandsons Kristopher and Kyle Hunt; her son, Michael (Angela) Hunt; grandchildren James Hunt, Nicolas Hunt, Dylan Hunt, Teagan (Eric) Calhoun; great-grandchildren: Kaden, Jaden and Jaxen; step-children: Kenneth Hodges, Brenda McGee; step-granddaughters: April Malone and Stephanie Denison and Kellyne Hammon-tree; step-grandsons: Kyle and Kenneth Hammon-tree; as well as her foster son, Les Schofield and grandchildren Thomas, Amanda, Melissa and Alyssa.

A celebration of life will be held in her honor next summer in Redmond, Ore.

FOWLE—Betty Lucille Waite Fowle, (AKA Betty Bird), born of Hyde Park, LA County, Calif., passed away peacefully in her home, Dec. 22, 2019.

Born Dec. 30, 1920, the youngest daughter of five, Betty was preceded in death by her siblings: Bill, Ruby, Lourine and Alma.

She is survived by her three children: Leonard, Sherryl and Mark (Susan); four granddaughters: Arlene, Sandra, Katherine and Briana; eight great-grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Whether you knew her as Betty Fowle, "Betty Bird" or "GG," she was a beloved mother, grandmother great and great-great-grandmother, artist, writer, poet, friend and world traveler.

Independent up to the end, Betty, was proud of her home and accomplishments throughout her years. A Creative through and through, she was free spirited and fun! She expressed this best while hosting parties and socializing, often inheriting new pen-pals along the way.

The best way to share her with you is to share a poem she wrote about her beloved home here in Oregon. We chose this one because it is supercalifragilisticexpialidocious!

My Life-Long Quest

My life long quest has been fulfilled with peace and freedom at my will. The things I've always held in mind are here for me *to seek and find.

A place to play
a place to dream.
In wooded hills
by rushing streams.
The river, sea
and changing dunes have now become my daily tunes.
These changing scenes
have been my quest,
I know I've found
The very best.
—Betty Bird*

Friends and family are welcome to join us for an open house on Monday, Dec. 30, celebrating Betty's 99th birthday and life, from noon to 5 p.m. at her home.

Feel free to send cards, which can be displayed if you can't make it.

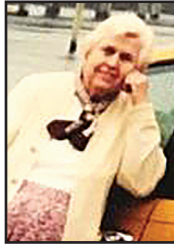

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
