Breaking ground on new housing

The long awaited ground-breaking for 12 new housing units at 1424 Airport Road took place Thursday, Jan. 22. State Senator Arnie Roblans (right) was in town for the ceremony and spoke briefly of the need for any type of housing, but in particular affordable, low-cost housing, for the Florence community. Mayor Joe Henry recapped the process which resulted in the City selling the undeveloped parcel of property to the Willamette Neighborhood Housing Services and the Neighborhood Economic Development Corporation (NEDCO). Those two organizations have since merged and the leaders of the new entity, DevNW, were also on hand to celebrate the first tangible steps made towards the goal of completing the first development of its kind in the county.

Peace Harbor welcomes first baby of 2020

On Jan 13, the area welcomed the first baby of the year with the birth of Isaac Ishmael Boone. Weighing 7 pounds, 7 ounces and 19.5 inches in height, the boy was born at 1:10 p.m. at PeaceHealth Peace Harbor Medical Center. Issac is the second child for Reedsport residents Autumn Boone and Brian Nejia, who took baby Issac home to three-year-old sister Emilia Nejia last week. "It's a lot easier the second time around," Boone said about being home with her second child. "Before, I was so tired I never left the house. This time, I have a lot more energy and I'm actually out doing things." Issac's middle name, Ishmael, comes from his grandfather, while his first name was chosen "just because I like the name," Boone said. PeaceHealth Peace Harbor's OB/GYN team includes Drs. Yvonne Sculley, Jacqueline Serrano and Justine Parker.

Three Rivers Casino Resort to host annual career fair

Local businesses, community partners and vendors are invited to participate in the 5th annual Community Career Fair taking place Thursday, March 5 at Three Rivers Casino Resort, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. This community job fair is free for participating businesses and job seekers. Last year's event brought an estimated 200 participants with 40 vendors on hand. This year's event plans to be even bigger. Pam Hickson, Recruitment Specialist at the Confederated Tribes of Coos Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians said, "We all know it can be challenging for both businesses and applicants to locate resources and to apply for jobs or plan career goals. "The Community Career Fair will bring everyone together with the common goals of hiring and being hired." Community members and businesses are invited to participate in the free event, which provides an ideal opportunity to reach interested applicants and talk with them in person before the peak hiring season. For more information or to sign up to participate as a vendor by the Jan 31 deadline, contact Hickson at 541-902-3821 or email her at phickson@ctclusihr.org.
