DUNNING—Mr. Raymond Earl Dunning died on Jan. 18, 2020, at his home in Florence, Ore.

He was predeceased by his wife, Effie.

Ray, a 30-year resident of Florence, was born in Gold Beach, Ore., on Dec. 11, 1927. He graduated in 1945 from Roseburg Senior High School in Roseburg, Ore.

A former high school, he served in the United States Army and Army Reserves until 1957. In July 1954, he married Mrs. Effie Dickens, a widow from Sutherlin, Ore.

Raymond worked as a groceryman from the age 15 until he retired in 1990. In his retirement years, he worked as a Mobile Missonary throughout the Western United States and for 20 years as a volunteer for Habitat for Humanity.

He is survived by his sister, Mrs. Doris Garrett of Florence; his children: Gilbert Dunning of Florence, Douglas Dickens of Oklahoma, Claudia Mattingly of Minnesota and Alice Ledee of Washington; 13 grandchildren and 55 great-grandchildren.

A memorial service for Ray is scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 8 beginning at 1 p.m., at the Church of the Nazarene, 1536 12th St. in Florence.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests a donation be made to the Habitat for Humanity in Florence.

XAVIER—Joseph F. Xavier, Jr., born June 26, 1931, in Puu unā nā, Maui, Hawaii, passed away in the early morning hours on Jan. 13, 2020, in Portland, Ore.

Joe was born and raised on the island of Maui and graduated from St. Anthony High School in 1950. He was 10 years old when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor and he often spoke about the effects that day had on his family, friends and beloved Hawaii.

As a young man, Joe moved to the mainland and attended Woodbury University in Burbank, Calif., graduating with a degree in Business Administration.

He met the love of his life, Nola Carter, at UCLA and liked to brag about how he had been married three times (to the same woman).

On their 50th wedding anniversary, at Joe's insistence, they renewed their wedding vows in Las Vegas in front of an Elvis impersonator.

Joe spent most of his career working in the university system. First at UCLA, then UCSB, and finally at the University of Washington (Go Dawgs!). During his career, Joe had the opportunity to meet many dignitaries and celebrities including the Grateful Dead, President Ronald Reagan, HRH Queen Elizabeth and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar.

Joe loved to talk and share stories.

After he retired from the UW, he and his wife moved to Florence, Ore., where Joe spent much of his time volunteering in the community with the Elks, Make a Difference Day and Neighborhood Watch.

Joe is survived by his wife Nola; daughters Marie Xavier (Bonnie Jeffs), Julie Martin (Niels Martin); and his four beloved grandchildren: Zachary Martin, Madison (Mark Owen), Katie (Barrett Cooper) and Tanner Martin.

Joe will be making one last trip to his beloved Hawaii; E hoā omaha me ka maluhia.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

TSA to begin requiring new ID to board aircraft

Something big is happening Oct. 1 of this year. If you aren't paying attention, it might mean missing your flight out of PDX or any other airport across the U.S.

On that date, the Transportation Security Administration, or TSA, begins requiring a new type of identification to board a commercial aircraft. The new ID must be compliant with something called the Real ID Act. It's designed to keep people safer in the air, but if someone tries to board an aircraft using their current Oregon driver license starting in October, it won't work. That's because the current Oregon driver license is not Real ID compliant.

Oregon DMV will begin offering a Real ID option on July 6, 2020. To fulfill the demand of nearly 1 million Oregonians who will want the Real ID option, DMV would have to issue 32 licenses a second every business day from July to October. That's just not possible.

If someone doesn't have a Real ID compliant form of ID at the airport, TSA will put them through an alternate identity verification process that could take an hour or more, and people may miss their flight.

There is an answer for Oregonians: obtain and use a passport or passport card. The cost of getting a new passport card is roughly equal to that of getting a replacement license with the Real ID option — and people can apply now at one of over 76 acceptance sites across Oregon.

To find out more, visit <https://www.Oregon.gov/REALID>.

By the way, Washingtonians already have the option of getting a Real ID compliant driver license. If you are a Washington resident, go to <https://id-2020wa.com/> to find out more.
