Siuslaw Pioneer Museum introduces new exhibit

The Siuslaw Pioneer Museum invites the public to visit its new exhibit honoring all the people of the Siuslaw Valley who helped the second annual Western Lane County Fair come to Florence in September 1922.

This was a three-day event with Sept. 14, 1922, being the opening day with a livestock exhibit on the wharf.

Day two saw a special Southern Pacific train come from Eugene with eight coaches full of excursionists. A seafood buffet was enjoyed by 1,200 people.

Day three was a day to enjoy the fair and get ready to send local award-winning entries to the Lane County Fair in Eugene.
