Post Office visits Florence Head Start's classes

COURTESY PHOTOS

Florence Post Office personnel Laura and Mary visited with Head Start's morning and afternoon classes on Thursday, Feb. 13. During the lesson, Children donned P.O. shirts and took an oath to "provide prompt, reliable and efficient service to all patrons in the area." The children also wrote a letter to their parents that they "cancelled" with the Post Office stamp, and gave them to Laura and Mary to mail for them.

Library presents Best Book List of 2019 twice

Siuslaw Public Library Adult Services Librarian Kevin Mittge will present the annual Best Books List on Friday, Feb. 28, from 1 to 2 p.m. at the main branch of the Library in the Bromley Room and again on Thursday, March 5, from 1 to 2 p.m. at the Mapleton Branch Library.

This hour-long program is exciting, fast-paced, and offers a brief description of about sixty books in sixty minutes. The annual list of best books is prepared by Librarian Mittge.

Each year, Mittge solicits recommendations for this yearly best book list from library patrons, staff, volunteers and national critics. And, being a prolific reader himself, he also adds his own favorites. The event is free and all genres are included in the lightning-speed book summaries.

Kevin Mittge, Adult Services Librarian, holds three 2019 Best Books that he will talk about Feb. 28 and March 5.

This fun, annual program is a must for both avid and casual readers.

Find out which books were requested most by Siuslaw Public Library patrons in 2019 and which selections topped the critic's list in fiction and nonfiction. Every attendee is guaranteed to learn about a new and interesting author or an intriguing book.

A Best Book List will be available to take home and anyone unable to attend can pick up the Library's Best Books List at the Library following the program.

When asked what he enjoyed most about compiling the 2019 Best Books list, Mittge said: "Just like in prior years, learning about all the great books and authors out there that I haven't read yet but now want to! And this year I have included suggestions for a couple of authors readers might want to explore."

Everyone is sure to find a new favorite read on his list.

The "Best Books of 2019" presentation will be held in the Bromley Room on Feb. 28.

Everyone is welcome to drop in and see if his or her favorite book is included in this year's list.

For more information about the program, visit the Siuslaw Public Library in person, call 541-997-3132, visit the Library's Facebook or go to siuslawlibrary.info.

SVFR seeks Civil Service Commission member

Siuslaw Valley Fire & Rescue (SVFR) invite applications from residents interested in serving on SVFR's Civil Service Commission.

Interested persons should obtain an application from SVFR, 2625 Highway 101, or from www.svfr.org.

Applications will be accepted until noon on Friday, March 20. Questions should be directed to Dina McClure at 541-997-3212.

The SVFR Board will appoint members at its March board meeting.

Applicants must be registered voters residing within the district.

The commission oversees and confirms that all district hiring, promotion and disciplinary processes are being conducted in accordance with the district's civil service rules.
