

The Chamber has been a valued partner and a key driver in the growth of the Arts community in Florence. From publicizing events and activities at FRAA and other organizations in the “Blast” to offering display space for artists in the Visitors Center, Bettina and the Chamber have helped Florence become an Arts Destination. Most recently, they have supported the Public Art program by helping to coordinate a visit from all the Commissioners of Travel Oregon/Oregon Tourism Commission to visit our Outdoor Gallery in Old Town called “Art Exposed.” The Commissioners were very impressed and this positive exposure has increased the visibility of the Florence Public Arts Committee throughout the state.

The dedication and enthusiasm that Bettina brings to the Chamber is contagious and Florence is fortunate to have an active and engaged Chamber of Commerce.
