OHA releases statewide face covering guidelines

The Oregon Health Authority (OHA) released a statewide update to its face covering guidance in conjunction with Gov. Kate Brown's July 1 statewide mandate for the wearing of face coverings while in public spaces.

The guidance applies to all businesses and the general public.

and exemptions from the mask, face shield or face covering requirement for employees, contractors and volunteers if such accommodations or exemptions are required by:

- State and federal disabilities laws if applicable, including the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) which protects people with disabilities from discrimination in employment and requires employers to engage in the interactive process for accommodations.
- State or federal labor laws, where applicable.
- State and federal public accommodations laws that provide all persons with full and equal access to services, transportation and facilities open to the public.
- If customers or visitors will be required to wear a mask, face shield or face covering:

Additionally, a business should, but is not required to:

- Provide, at no cost, at least disposable face coverings for customers or visitors who do not have one.
- Post signs about any mask, face shield or face coverings requirement in languages that are commonly spoken by customers and visitors.
- Educate employees:
 - On how to safely work and communicate with people who cannot wear masks, face shields or face coverings.
 - That they may need to remove a mask or face covering while communicating with an individual who needs to read lips or see facial expressions to communicate.

unit cannot be maintained at all times and vulnerable people must go.

Because children between the ages of two and 12 years of age can have challenges wearing a mask, face shield or face covering properly (e.g., excessively touching the face covering, not changing the face covering if visibly soiled, risk of strangulation or suffocation, etc.) it is urged that if masks, face shields or face coverings are worn by this age group, that they be worn with the assistance and close supervision of an adult.

Masks, face shields or face coverings should never be worn by children when sleeping.

The use of mask, face shield, or face covering may be optional if six feet or more of distance is maintained from others. Otherwise, it is recommended to wear mask, face shield or face covering in public settings where physical distancing cannot be maintained.

There may be mask, face shield and face covering requirements and recommendations that apply to other businesses not listed in this guidance.

Free guidelines can be obtained by contacting Mavel Morales at 844-882-7889.

- Post clear signs about any such requirements.
- Provide accommodations and exceptions for people with disabilities and medical conditions and children under 12 years of age.
- Review and require employees, contractors and volunteers to review "OHA's Mask and Face Covering Guidance for Business, Transit and the Public Frequently Asked Questions" to learn about how requiring people to wear face coverings affects people differently including people with disabilities and people of color who may have heightened concerns about racial profiling and harassment due to wearing face coverings in public.

- Is under two years of age.
- Has a medical condition that makes it hard to breathe when wearing a mask, face shield or face covering.
