OBITUARIES

NOVELLI—The families of Kyle and Amber Novelli are saddened to share their death in a tragic accident off the coast of Florence, Ore., in their boat The Aquarius on June 29, 2020.

Kyle and Amber Novelli

The Aquarius was hit by a rouge wave while Kyle and Amber were crabbing off the South Jetty of the Port of Siuslaw.

Kyle is survived by his son, Kody Novelli; his parents Larry and Barbara Novelli; and brother, Scott Novelli; nephew Kapp Novelli; and niece Tatum Novelli.

Amber is survived by her mother, Barbara Richards; her sister Jamie Walton; brother Tommy Segali; her sons: Joe Reynolds, Daniel James (D.J.) Reynolds; daughter Emily Padilla; and grandkids: Maddison Reynolds, Jaci Reynolds and Parker Reynolds.

Amber and Kyle had developed the very popular Novelli Crab and Seafood Shack; Amber daily made her crab chowder and shared her enthusiastic, contagious personality and Kyle brought in the crab she used in the four-time award-winning crab chowder.

A quote from a recent Siuslaw News feature on them: "Both their personalities will forever leave a lasting impression on anyone who met them."

Both families feel some comfort that they died together doing what they both loved crabbing and being on the ocean."

Once group gatherings are allowed again, a celebration of life will be held for Amber and Kyle both in Florence and Pacific Grove, Calif.

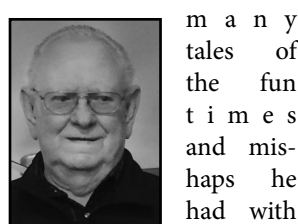

Announcements will be in local papers in both towns.

Donations can be sent to Newport Fishermen's Wives Inc., P.O. Box 971 Newport, Ore. 97365.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home was entrusted with arrangements.

GNAU— Jerry Robert Gnau, 84, passed away peacefully July 10, 2020, at his daughter's house in Portland, Ore.

Jerry was born Aug. 5, 1935, in Marshfield, Ore. He was raised in Florence and told m a n y tales of the fun t i m e s and m i s h a p s he had with his three b r o t h e r s (Ray, Bert and Dick) and their friends. Jerry was the beloved husband of Norma Skinner Gnau, who died in 2012. Since that time, he wanted nothing more than to join her.

They were married in Reno, Nev., July 17, 1964, and had one daughter, Kimberly Jarvis, of Portland, Ore.

He is survived by her and his grandsons, Joss and Jared Jarvis.

Jerry joined the U.S. Navy in 1954 and served aboard the USS Yorktown. Upon completion of his service, he returned to Florence and worked at sawmills until moving to Albany in 1974. He worked at Teledyne Wah Chang as a millwright until he retired in 1997.

He then returned to Florence to live out his later years and be closer to family.

Jerry enjoyed shooting pool and was ranked 13th in the state at one point. He also enjoyed making things in his shop. He made and sold pool cues as well as jewelry, wooden boxes and puzzles.

Jerry also loved spending time at the casino and could be seen there almost every morning enjoying breakfast and playing the slot machines.

Arrangements were made through Burns's Riverside Chapel.
